

NOTICE TO THE BAR

CENTRALIZED MANAGEMENT OF PROPECIA LITIGATION

A previous Notice to the Bar requested comments on an application for mass tort designation and centralized management of all New Jersey state court litigation relating to the drug Propecia. The application was submitted pursuant to Court Rule 4:38A and Directive #7-09, the “Revised Mass Tort Guidelines.” This Notice is to advise that the Supreme Court, after considering the application and the comments received, has determined not to designate the Propecia litigation as a mass tort/multi-county litigation, but rather to assign it to the Middlesex Vicinage for centralized case management by Superior Court Judge Jessica R. Mayer

Accordingly, published with this Notice are the Supreme Court’s March 7, 2012 Order and Judge Mayer’s March 16, 2012 case management order. The Orders also are posted on the Judiciary’s Internet website (www.njcourts.com) in the Mass Tort Information Center (<http://www.judiciary.state.nj.us/mass-tort/index.htm>).

IN RE PROPECIA® LITIGATION

CIVIL ACTION

INITIAL ORDER FOR CASE MANAGEMENT

THIS MATTER having been opened by the court on its own motion, and in furtherance of the Order of the Supreme Court of New Jersey dated March 7, 2012, ordering centralized case management of the Propecia® litigation, and good cause existing for the entry of this order pursuant to R. 4:38A,

IT IS on this 16th day of March, 2012,

ORDERED as follows:

1. Effect of This Order.

(a) Applicability. This order applies to all Propecia® litigation actions centralized for coordinated management in the Middlesex County Vicinage, and to all those hereinafter filed or transferred to the Middlesex County Vicinage pursuant to the New Jersey Supreme Court's Order dated March 7, 2012. The actions are centralized to avoid duplication and to prevent conflicts. Each action will retain its own docket number.

(b) Transfer of Files. All court files, including pleadings, motions, and other papers, shall be transferred from the original vicinage of venue to the Mass Tort Section of the Middlesex County Vicinage as soon as practicable.

(c) Stay. All motions pending in any vicinage are stayed until further order of the court. The filing of motions is stayed until further order of the court.

2. Initial Conference. All parties shall appear for a case management conference with the undersigned at 10:00 a.m. on April 19, 2012 in Courtroom 403 at the Middlesex County Courthouse, 56 Paterson Street, New Brunswick, New Jersey.

(a) Attendance. All parties shall attend the conference. To the extent practicable, parties with similar interests are expected to select one attorney to act on their joint behalf at the conference. Designation of such attorney for purposes of this conference shall not preclude other representation during the litigation; nor shall any party, in attending the conference, thereby waive any objection to jurisdiction, venue, or service.

(b) Service List. Counsel are requested to forward a copy of this order to other attorneys who should be notified of the conference, and to notify court staff immediately of all counsel who are to be included on the court's official counsel list. An official service list will be prepared after the conference.

(c) Other Participants. Persons who are not named as parties in this litigation but who may later be joined as parties, or are parties in related litigation pending in other federal and state courts, are invited to attend.

(d) Agenda. A tentative agenda is appended as Attachment 1. Counsel shall advise the court of any additional issues for consideration by 12:00 noon no later than seven (7) days prior to the conference.

3. Preparations for Conference.

(a) Initial Conference of Counsel. Before the conference, counsel shall meet, confer and seek consensus with respect to the items on the agenda.

(b) Statements. Counsel will submit to the court by 12:00 noon at least seven (7) days prior to the conference, a brief written statement (not to exceed three (3) pages) containing the following information, to the extent known:

1. List of all companies affiliated with the parties, and counsel associated in the litigation, to assist the court in identifying any problems of recusal or disqualification;
2. List of all related actions pending in state or federal court and their current status;
3. Status of discovery including digital information identification, collection, and preservation;
4. Status of settlement negotiations, settlement demands, mediation, and prospects for settlement.

These statements will not be filed with the clerk, will not be binding, will not waive claims or defenses, and may not be offered into evidence against a party in later proceedings.

4. Interim Measures. Until otherwise ordered by the court:

(a) Duty to Preserve. Each party shall preserve all documents and other records, including computerized records, containing information potentially relevant to this litigation. No party shall erase computerized data until opposing counsel has been notified of all existing programs and a court order has been obtained. Each party shall preserve any physical evidence or potential evidence and shall not conduct any tests on evidence without notifying opposing counsel. Unless opposing counsel stipulate to the test, no test shall be conducted without prior court approval.

(b) Protective Stipulation/Agreement. The parties should attempt to reach agreement on all issues regarding the necessity for, scope of, and terms of a protective stipulation or agreement covering confidential, privileged, or protected information.

5. Later Filed Actions. This order shall apply to related actions later filed in or transferred to this court.

6. Internet Notice. All orders, notices and other pertinent documents filed with the court common to the entire litigation shall be available on the New Jersey Judiciary Web Page for Mass Tort Litigation, which may be accessed at www.judiciary.state.nj.us/mass-tort/index.htm.

7. Admission Pro Hac Vice. Attorneys must be admitted to practice and in good standing in New Jersey, unless admitted pro hac vice:

(a) An attorney seeking admission pro hac vice shall apply by formal notice of motion or by consent with supporting affidavit and proposed form of order, in compliance with R. 1:21-2 of the Rules Governing the Courts of New Jersey. Motions for admission pro hac vice filed with consent of opposing counsel shall be decided at the earliest convenience of the court without the need to be heard on the regular motion calendar. Counsel shall use the pro hac vice application form posted on the judiciary's website at <http://www.judiciary.state.nj.us/civil/forms/10521.pdf>.

(b) In accordance with R. 1:21-2, the attorney seeking admission pro hac vice must certify the following to be true:

in any jurisdiction; and that counsel understands his or her continuing obligation to advise the court of any disciplinary proceedings.

5) Out-of-state attorneys representing plaintiffs must certify that all retainer agreements with clients in the subject litigation do not, and in the future will not, violate any provisions of the New Jersey Rules of Court.

6) Out-of-state attorneys seeking to represent a corporate defendant must certify as to any prior involvement with that corporation or its related entities, including the capacity in which the attorney was involved. Further, the attorney must include in his or her affidavit a statement of the good faith belief that the attorney was not involved with policy or management decisions that would require the attorney to be called as a witness in any matter before the court.

(c) Counsel admitted pro hac vice may try the action, but shall not be designated trial counsel under R. 4:25-4. No proceedings shall be adjourned because pro hac vice counsel is unavailable.

(d) All pleadings, motions and correspondence to the court must be submitted by New Jersey counsel, unless the court specifically waives this provision.

(e) Pro hac vice counsel must be accompanied by a member of the New Jersey Bar at all proceedings.

(f) Counsel admitted pro hac vice shall consent to the appointment of the Clerk of the Supreme Court of New Jersey as an agent upon whom service of process may be made for all actions against their firm that may arise out of their participation in this matter.

(g) Counsel admitted pro hac vice shall be required to make annual payments to the Disciplinary Oversight Committee (R. 1:20-1(b)), the New Jersey Lawyers' Fund for Client Protection (R. 1:28-2(a)), and the New Jersey Lawyers Assistance Program (R. 1:28B-1(e)).

(h) Counsel admitted pro hac vice must within ten (10) days of the entry of the order for admission, pay the fees required by R. 1:20-1(b), R. 1:28-2 and R. 1:28B-1(e) and submit affidavits of compliance within fifteen (15) days thereafter. (i) Admission pro hac vice shall be automatically terminated for failure to make any required annual payment, upon appropriate notification from the Administrative Office of the Courts that the annual payment has not been made. Proof of such payment, after filing proof of the initial payment, shall be made no later than February 1 of each year.

(j) Noncompliance with any of the requirements of pro hac vice admission shall constitute grounds for removal.
