MEMORANDUM

Supplement to Directive #02-14

- TO: Assignment Judges Trial Court Administrators
- FROM: Glenn A. Grant, J.A.D.
- DATE: July 16, 2014

RE: Probation/Family – Enforcement of Child Support – Revised "Order for Relief to Litigants – Enforcement of Litigants Rights" (CN 11213)

This memorandum promulgates for immediate statewide use the attached revised form "Order for Relief to Litigant – Enforcement of Litigants Rights" (CN 11213) as approved by the Supreme Court. This revised form order supersedes the form order promulgated by Directive #02-14. That Directive delineates the procedures for determining indigence and conducting a hearing to determine the ability to comply with child support obligations, after a child support obligor is taken into custody on a child support-related warrant. The procedures set forth in Directive #02-14 remain in effect.

One change from the earlier approved form of order is to replace "Other" in paragraph 4(b) and 4(c) with "Other reasons as set forth on the record." In addition, paragraph 9 was revised to clarify that the court may modify a child support obligation and/or arrears if appropriate.

The Probation Services Division and the Family Practice Division will coordinate joint training for Vicinage court staff on the procedures of Directive #02-14, as well as, the revised form order.

The Division of Family Development, in the Department of Human Services, is in the process of placing this revised order into production on the New Jersey Kids Deserve Support (NJKiDS) child support enforcement system. Notwithstanding the November 15, 2011, memo indicating that all child support orders should be created electronically in NJKiDS, it will still be necessary to use this revised order until the conforming updates are completed in NJKiDS.

Questions or comments may be directed to Assistant Director Elizabeth Domingo, Probation Services Division at 609-292-1589, or Assistant Director Joanne M. Dietrich, Family Practice Division at 609-984-4228.
