DIRECTIVE # 05-14

FROM: GLENN A. GRANT

[Supersedes Directive # 03-10]

SUBJ: AMENDED FORM – NOTICE OF APPEAL RIGHTS AND TIME TO FILE A PETITION FOR POST-CONVICTION RELIEF AND COLLOQUY

DATE: AUGUST 25, 2014

Directive #20-06 (November 15, 2006) promulgated the Appeals Rights Form for use in criminal cases and the standard Appeals Rights colloquy to be used by the judge during sentencing to ensure that a “defendant understands his or her appeal rights and has executed the appeal rights form knowingly and intelligently.” State v. Molina, 187 N.J. 531, 544 (2006). Directive #03-10 (March 9, 2010) promulgated revisions to the form and colloquy to address notice for the filing of post-conviction relief applications.

In its 2011-2013 report, the Criminal Practice Committee recommended revising the section of the form signed by a private attorney, which describes the procedure to be followed when a defendant decides to appeal and cannot afford to continue to retain private counsel. Those revisions to the form, as approved by the Supreme Court, and revisions to the colloquy, as endorsed by the Conference of Criminal Presiding Judges and the Conference of Criminal Division Managers, follow.

The Appeal Rights Form is being revised to conform with the current practice in R. 2:7-2(a) when a defendant is represented by private counsel at trial, but wishes to seek representation by the Office of the Public Defender for purposes of appeal. The form had required that private counsel refer the matter to the Office of the Public Defender to file the appeal, a practice that caused delays in the receipt and processing of 5A indigency applications, as well as the final indigency determination and referral of the matter to the Office of the Public Defender for representation.

The form as revised now provides that if the defendant no longer wishes to retain private counsel for purposes of appeal, private counsel will direct the defendant to contact the Criminal Division Manager's Office in the county of venue as soon as possible so that the defendant can complete an indigency application to ensure the appointment of the Office of the Public Defender within 45 days of the sentencing date.

Additionally, the form is being revised to include the contact address for the criminal case management office for the county where the conviction occurred. The proposed revisions will help ensure that if the defendant seeks representation by the Office of the Public Defender for the appeal, the indigency determination is made by the criminal case management office before the matter is referred to the Public Defender's Office. In that way, the Public Defender's Office, as opposed to the private attorney, will be able to file the notice of appeal on behalf of indigent individuals who have been deemed eligible for its services.

The colloquy used by judges during sentencing also has been revised to advise defendants that if private counsel does not continue representation on appeal, the defendant should contact the Criminal Division Manager's office to apply for a Public Defender.

Please share this information in your respective vicinages to ensure that members of the bar who practice in this area are informed of this change in procedure.

NOTICE OF APPEAL RIGHTS AND TIME TO FILE A PETITION FOR POST-CONVICTION RELIEF COLLOQUY

Usted tiene 45 días a partir de hoy para apelar su sentencia condenatoria y condena.

[Si el acusado estuvo representado por un abogado particular, lea lo siguiente:

Si su abogado particular no va a continuar representándolo en la apelación, usted (o su abogado) debe comunicarse con la oficina del Administrador de la División Penal para solicitar un Abogado de Oficio].

Si usted no puede pagar a un abogado, la Oficina del Abogado de Oficio lo seguirá representando.

Si usted no cumple con el plazo de 45 días, puede pedir una extensión de 30 días para presentar su apelación si puede indicar una buena razón para no haber cumplido con el plazo.

Si usted no cumple con el plazo extendido, puede perder su derecho de apelar. ¿Tiene alguna pregunta sobre su derecho a apelar?

Usted tiene 5 años a partir de la fecha de hoy para presentar una petición de reparación después de la condena, a menos que corresponda una excepción a esta regla general según se expone en R. 3:22-12.

¿Habló usted con su abogado sobre la Notificación de los derechos de apelación y el plazo para presentar una solicitud de reparo judicial después de la condena?

¿Firmó usted la Notificación de los derechos de apelación y el plazo para presentar una petición de reparación después de la condena?

Basado en lo que usted ha dicho, estoy conforme de que usted ha ejecutado a sabiendas e inteligentemente la Notificación de los derechos de apelación y el plazo para presentar una petición de reparación después de la condena y entiende claramente sus derechos de apelación y el plazo para presentar una petición de reparación después de la condena.
