1:40-2. Modes and Definitions of Complementary Dispute Resolution

Complementary Dispute Resolution Programs (CDR) conducted under judicial supervision in accordance with these rules, as well as guidelines and directives of the Supreme Court, and the persons who provide the services to these programs are as follows:

(a) "Adjudicative Processes" means and includes the following:

(1) Arbitration: A process by which each party and/or its counsel presents its case to a neutral third party, who then renders a specific award. The parties may stipulate in advance of the arbitration that the award shall be binding. If not so stipulated, the provisions of Rule 4:21A-6 (Entry of Judgment; Trial De Novo) shall be applicable.

(2) Settlement Proceedings: A process by which the parties appear before a neutral third party or neutral panel [of such neutrals], who assists them in attempting to resolve their dispute by voluntary agreement.

(3) Summary Jury Trial: A process by which the parties present summaries of their respective positions to a panel of jurors, which may then issue a non-binding advisory opinion as to liability, damages, or both.

(b) "Evaluative Processes" means and includes the following:

(1) Early Neutral Evaluation (ENE): A pre-discovery process by which the attorneys, in the presence of their respective clients, present their factual and legal contentions to a neutral evaluator, who then provides an assessment of the strengths and weaknesses of each position and, if settlement does not ensue, assists in narrowing the dispute and proposing discovery guidelines.

(2) Neutral Fact Finding: A process by which a neutral third party, agreed upon by the parties, investigates and analyzes a dispute involving complex or technical issues, and who then makes non-binding findings and recommendations.

(c) "Facilitative Process," which [means and] includes mediation, [which] is a process by which a [mediator] neutral third party facilitates communication between parties in an effort to promote settlement without imposition of the [mediator's] facilitator's own judgment regarding the issues in dispute.

(d) "Hybrid Process" means and includes:

(1)(A) Mediation-arbitration: A process by which, after an initial mediation, unresolved issues are then arbitrated.

(1)(B) Arbitration-mediation: A process by which, after initial arbitration proceedings, but before the award is delivered, the parties are jointly given the opportunity to mediate a resolution. If successful, the mediated settlement is executed by the parties and the arbitration award is disregarded. If unsuccessful, the arbitration award is delivered to the parties.

(2) Mini-trial: A process by which the parties present their legal and factual [conditions] contentions to either a panel of representatives selected by each party, or a neutral third party, or both, in an effort to define the issues in dispute and to assist settlement negotiations. A neutral third party may issue an advisory opinion, which shall not, however, be binding, unless the parties have so stipulated in writing in advance.

(e) . . . no change.

(f) "Neutral Third Party:" A "neutral third party" is an individual who provides a CDR process. [A "qualified neutral" is an individual included on any roster of neutrals maintained by the Administrative Office of the Courts or an Assignment Judge. Neutral evaluators, neutral fact finders, and settlement program panelists] Neutral third parties serving as mediators must comply with the requirements of R. 1:40-12. Neutral third parties serving as other than mediators, that is, who are conducting Arbitrations, Settlement Proceedings, Summary Jury Trials, Early Neutral Evaluations, or Neutral Fact Finding processes, are not required to comply with the [training] requirements of [Rule] R. 1:40-12 [or to be on any roster of neutrals maintained by the Administrative Office of the Courts or an Assignment Judge].

(g) Roster Mediator; Non-Roster Mediator: A roster mediator is an individual included on any roster of mediators maintained by the Administrative Office of the Courts or an Assignment Judge. A non-roster mediator is an individual who provides mediation, but is not listed on any roster of mediators maintained by the Administrative Office of the Courts or an Assignment Judge. The parties may agree to use a roster mediator or a non-roster mediator.

(a) Notice by the State. Whenever the State intends to call an expert witness to testify at trial and that expert witness did not conduct, supervise, or participate in a scientific or other such test about which he or she will testify, the State shall serve written notice upon the defendant and counsel of intent to call that witness, along with a proffer of such testimony, all reports pertaining to such testimony, and any underlying tests, at least 20 days before the pretrial proceeding begins, or at least 20 days before the pretrial conference. If extenuating circumstances exist, the state may file the notice after this deadline. For purposes of this rule the term “test” shall include any test, demonstration, forensic analysis or other type of expert examination.

(b) Objection by the Defendant. If the defendant intends to object to the expert testimony, the defendant shall serve written notice upon the State of any objection within 10 days of receiving the State’s notice of intent. The State’s failure to file a notice of intent within the timeframe required by this rule shall for good cause shown extend the

(e) Time Limitations. The time limitations set forth in this rule shall not be relaxed except upon a showing of good cause.

The prosecutor shall also provide defense counsel with a listing of the materials that have been supplied in discovery. If any discoverable materials known to the prosecutor have not been supplied, the prosecutor shall also provide defense counsel with a listing of the materials that are missing and explain why they have not been supplied.

If the defendant is represented by the public defender, defendant's attorney shall obtain a copy of the discovery from the prosecutor's office or the criminal division manager's office prior to, or at, the pre-arraignment conference. However, if the defendant has retained private counsel, upon written request of counsel submitted along with a copy of counsel's entry of appearance and received by the prosecutor's office prior to the date of the pre-arraignment conference, the prosecutor shall, within three business days, send the discovery to defense counsel either by U.S. mail at the defendant's cost or by e-mail without charge, with the manner of transmittal at the prosecutor's discretion. Defense counsel shall simultaneously send a copy of the request for mail or e-mail discovery, along with any request for waiver of the pre-arraignment conference under R. 3:9-1(a), to the criminal division manager's office.

If the defendant is unrepresented at the prearraignment conference, a copy of the discovery shall be provided to defense counsel upon request as provided for in the preceding paragraph, or at the arraignment/status conference, which shall occur no later than 28 days after the return or unsealing of the indictment.

A defendant who does not seek discovery from the State shall so notify the criminal division manager's office and the prosecutor, and the defendant need not provide discovery to the State pursuant to sections (b)(2) or (f), except as required by Rule 3:12-1 or otherwise required by law.

Rule 5:1-4. Differentiated Case Management in Civil Family Actions

(a) Case Management Tracks; Standards for Assignment. Except for summary actions, every civil family action shall be assigned, subject to reassignment as provided by paragraph (c) of this rule, to one of the following tracks:

(1) Priority Track. . . . no change.

(2) Complex Track. . . . no change.

(3) Expedited Track. . . . no change.

(4) Standard Track. Any action not qualifying for assignment to the Priority Track, Complex Track, [or] Expedited Track, or Arbitration Track shall be assigned to the Standard Track.

(5) Arbitration Track. At any point in a proceeding, the parties may agree to execute a Consent Order or Agreement to arbitrate or resolve the issues pending before the court pursuant to the Uniform Arbitration Act, N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-1, et seq., the New Jersey Alternative Procedure for Dispute Resolution Act, N.J.S.A. 2A:23A-1, et seq., or any other agreed upon framework for arbitration of disputes between and among parties to any proceeding arising from a family or family-type relationship except as provided in R. 5:1-5(a)(1). If the parties elect to arbitrate, the litigation shall be assigned to the Arbitration Track, and the arbitration shall proceed pursuant to R. 5:1-5. Issues not resolved in the arbitration shall be addressed in a separate mediation process or by the court after the disposition of the arbitration.

(b) Procedure for Track Assignment. The Family Presiding Judge or a judge designated by the Family Presiding Judge shall make the track assignment as soon as practicable after all parties have filed Family Case Information Statements required by R. 5:5-2 or after the case management conference required by R. 5:5-7, whichever is earlier. The track assignment, however, shall not [shall not, however] precede the filing of the first responsive pleading in the action. In making the track assignment, due consideration shall be given to an attorney's request for track assignment. If all the attorneys agree on a track assignment, the case shall not be assigned to a different track except for good cause shown and after giving all attorneys the opportunity to be heard, in writing or orally. The good cause exception shall not apply to a case assigned to the Arbitration Track. If it is not clear from an examination of the information provided by the parties which track assignment is most appropriate, the case shall be assigned to a track other than the Arbitration Track that affords the greatest degree of management. The parties shall be advised promptly by the court of the track assignment.

(c) Track Reassignment. Except with respect to assignment to the Arbitration Track, an [An] action may be reassigned to a track other than that specified in the original notice to the parties either on the court's own motion or on application of a party. Unless the court otherwise directs, such application may be made informally to the Family Presiding Judge or to a judge designated by the Family Presiding Judge and shall state with specificity the reasons therefor. An action assigned to the Arbitration Track may be reassigned to the track assignment most appropriate if the parties mutually elect to opt out of the Arbitration Track by Consent Order or Agreement.

Note: Adopted January 21, 1999 to be effective April 5, 1999; paragraph (b) amended August 1, 2006 to be effective September 1, 2006; subparagraph (a)(3) amended July 21, 2011 to be effective September 1, 2011; subparagraph (a)(4) amended, new subparagraph (a)(5) adopted, and paragraphs (b) and (c) amended July 27, 2015 to be effective September 1, 2015.

5:1-5. Arbitration [new]

(a) Scope of Rule. This Rule applies to all Agreements to Arbitrate ("Agreements") and all Consent Orders to Arbitrate ("Consent Orders"), including but not limited to those entered into pursuant to the Uniform Arbitration Act, N.J.S.A. 2A:23B-1 et seq., the New Jersey Alternative Procedure for Dispute Resolution Act, N.J.S.A. 2A:23A-1 et seq., or any other agreed upon framework for arbitration or resolution of disputes between and among parties to any proceeding heard in the family part, except: (A) the entry of the final judgment of annulment or dissolution of relationship; (B) actions involving the Division of Child Protection and Permanency; (C) domestic violence actions; (D) juvenile delinquency actions; (E) family crisis actions; and (F) adoption actions, which may not be arbitrated.

(b) Prerequisites.

(1) Arbitration Questionnaire. Prior to the execution of any Agreement or entry of a Consent Order, each party shall review and execute the Arbitration Questionnaire, which is set forth in Appendix XXIX-A, and each party's questionnaire shall be attached to the Agreement or Consent Order.

(2) Agreement or Consent Order.

(A) Insofar as an Agreement or Consent Order relates to a pending family proceeding, the Agreement or Consent Order shall state:

(i) the parties understand their entitlement to a judicial adjudication of their dispute and are willing to waive that right;

(ii) the parties are aware of the limited circumstances under which a challenge to the award may be advanced and agree to those limitations;

(iii) the parties have had sufficient time to consider the implications of their decision to arbitrate; and

(iv) the parties have entered into the Agreement or Consent Order freely and voluntarily, after due consideration of the consequences of doing so.

(B) In addition, in all family proceedings involving child-custody and parenting-time issues, the Agreement or Consent Order shall provide that:

(i) a record of all documentary evidence shall be kept;

(ii) all testimony shall be recorded verbatim; and

(iii) the award shall state, in writing, findings of fact and conclusions of law with a focus on the best-interests of the child standard.

(C) Further, in all family proceedings involving child support issues, the Agreement or Consent Order shall provide that the award shall state, in writing, findings of fact and conclusions of law with a focus on the best-interests standard, and consistent with R. 5:6A and Rules Appendix IX.

(D) Appendix XXIX-B is a template form of agreement to arbitrate pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:23B-1 et seq.

(F) Appendix XXIX-D is a form arbitrator/umpire disclosure.

(3) Certification. If the parties have entered into an Agreement or Consent Order to arbitrate or an arbitration award has issued, the certification filed pursuant to R. 4:5-1(b)(2) shall so state.

(c) Arbitration Track. Any action pending at the time that an Agreement or Consent Order to arbitrate is reached shall be placed on the Arbitration Track referenced in R. 5:1-4 for no more than one year following Arbitration Track assignment, which term may be extended by the court for good cause shown. Cases assigned to the Arbitration Track should be given scheduling consideration when fixing court appearances in other matters.

Note: Adopted July 27, 2015 to be effective September 1, 2015.

5:3-2. Closed hearings; record

(a) Hearings on Welfare or Status of a Child. Except as otherwise provided by rule or statute requiring full or partial in camera proceedings, the court, in its discretion, may on its own or party's motion direct that any proceeding or severable part thereof involving the welfare or status of a child be conducted in private. In the child's best interests, the court may further order that a child not be present at a hearing or trial unless the testimony, which may be taken privately in chambers or under such protective orders as the court may provide, is necessary for the determination of the matter. In matters brought by the Division of Child Protection and Permanency, the court shall accommodate the rights of the child as provided by N.J.S.A. 30:4C-61.2, prior to entering a permanency order. A verbatim record shall, however, be made of all in camera proceedings, including in-chamber testimony by or interrogation of a child.

(b) Sealing of Records. . . . no change.

5:3-8. Review and Enforcement of Arbitration Awards [new]

(a) Confirmation of Final or Interim Economic Awards. Except for child support awards that are governed by paragraph (c), either party may apply to the court by motion, the return date for which may be shortened by the court pursuant to R. 1:6-3(a), or summarily pursuant to R. 5:4-1 if no other family action is pending, to confirm a final or interim arbitration award. The court shall confirm and enter a judgment in conformity with the final award of the arbitrator, or confirm and enter a pendente lite order in conformity with an interim award of the arbitrator, unless the court determines to correct, modify or vacate the final or interim arbitration award pursuant to the procedures and standards set forth in the Uniform Arbitration Act, N.J.S.A. 2A:23B-23 or 24 (unless the parties have expanded the scope of review under N.J.S.A. 2A:23B-4(c)); the New Jersey Alternative Procedure for Dispute Resolution Act, N.J.S.A. 2A:23A-13 or 14; any other applicable statute; or any other agreed upon framework.

(b) Confirmation of Final or Interim Custody and Parenting Time Awards. Either party may apply to the court by motion, the return date for which may be shortened by the court pursuant to R. 1:6-3(a), or summarily pursuant to R. 5:4-1 if no other family action is pending, to confirm a final or interim child custody and parenting time arbitration award. The court shall confirm and enter a judgment in conformity with the final custody and parenting time award of the arbitrator, or confirm and enter a pendente lite order in conformity with an interim custody and parenting time award of the arbitrator unless the court finds that:

(1) a record of all documentary evidence has not been kept; or

(2) the award does not contain detailed written findings of fact and conclusions of law; or

(3) that a verbatim record of the proceedings was not made, in which case any interim or final award shall be subject to vacation and review de novo by the court; or

(4) there is evidential support establishing a prima facie case of harm to a child, in which event the court shall conduct a hearing and if, after that hearing, there is a finding of harm to a child, the parties' choice of arbitration shall be invalidated, the court shall vacate the interim or final award and determine de novo the child's best interest. If there is no finding of harm to a child, the court shall confirm and enter a judgment in conformity with the final award of the arbitrator, or confirm and enter a pendente lite order in conformity with an interim award of the arbitrator, unless the court determines to correct, modify or vacate the final or interim arbitration award pursuant to the procedures and standards set forth in the Uniform Arbitration Act, N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-23 or 24 (unless the parties have expanded the scope of review under N.J.S.A. 2A:23B-4(c)); the New Jersey Alternative Procedure for Dispute Resolution Act, N.J.S.A. 2A:23A-13 or 14; any other applicable statute; or any other agreed upon framework.

(c) Confirmation of Final or Interim Child Support Awards.

Either party may apply to the court by motion, the return date for which may be shortened by the court pursuant to R. 1:6-3(a), or summarily pursuant to R. 5:4-1 if no other family action is pending, to confirm a final or interim child support arbitration award. The court shall confirm and enter a judgment in conformity with the final child support arbitration award of the arbitrator, or confirm and enter a pendente lite order in conformity with an interim child support award of the arbitrator unless the court finds that there is evidential support establishing a prima facie case of harm to a child, in which event the court shall conduct a hearing and if, after that hearing, there is a finding of harm to a child, the parties' choice of arbitration shall be invalidated, the court shall vacate the interim or final award and determine de novo the child's best interest. If there is no finding of harm to a child, the court shall confirm and enter a judgment in conformity with the final award of the arbitrator, or confirm and enter a pendente lite order in conformity with an interim award of the arbitrator, unless the court determines to correct, modify or vacate the final or interim arbitration award pursuant to the procedures and standards set forth in the Uniform Arbitration Act, N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-23 or 24 (unless the parties have expanded the scope of review under N.J.S.A. 2A:23B-4(c)); the New Jersey Alternative Procedure for Dispute Resolution Act, N.J.S.A. 2A:23A-13 or 14; any other applicable statute; or any other agreed upon framework.

5:5-7. Case Management Conferences in Civil Family Actions

(a) Dissolution Priority and Complex Actions. In civil family actions assigned to the priority or complex track, an initial case management conference, which may be by telephone, shall be held within 30 days after the expiration of the time for the last permissible responsive pleading or as soon thereafter as is practicable considering, among other factors, the number of parties, if any, added or impleaded. Following the conference, the court shall enter an initial case management order fixing a schedule for initial discovery; requiring other parties to be joined, if necessary; narrowing the issues in dispute, if possible; and scheduling a second case management conference to be held after the close of the initial discovery period. The second case management order shall, among its other determinations, fix a firm trial date.

(b) Dissolution Standard and Expedited Cases. In civil family actions assigned to the standard or expedited track, a case management conference, which may be by telephone, shall be held within 30 days after the expiration of the time for the last permissible responsive pleading. The attorneys actually responsible for the prosecution and defense of the case shall participate in the case management conference and the parties shall be available in person or by telephone. Following the conference, the court shall enter a case management order fixing a discovery schedule and a firm trial date. Additional case management conferences may be held in the court's discretion and for good cause shown on its motion or a party's request.

(c) Non-Dissolution Actions. While non-dissolution actions are presumed to be summary and non-complex, at the first hearing following the filing of a non-dissolution application, the court, on oral application by a party or an attorney for a party, shall determine whether the case should be placed on a complex track. The court, in its discretion, also may make such a determination without an application from the parties. The complex track shall be reserved for only exceptional cases that cannot be heard in a summary matter. The court may assign the case to the complex track based only on a specific finding that discovery, expert evaluations, extended trial time or another material complexity requires such an assignment. Applications for a complex track assignment made after the initial hearing may be considered upon presentation of exceptional circumstances. If the court deems a non-dissolution case to be appropriate for the complex track at the first hearing, an initial case management conference shall be held at that time, and a case management order shall be issued detailing the reasons that the case is deemed complex. The court shall enter an order fixing a schedule for discovery, narrowing the issues in dispute, appointing experts, ordering necessary reports from probation or third parties, scheduling mediation (where appropriate), fixing a trial date, scheduling a second case management conference to fix a trial date, or addressing any other relief the court may deem appropriate. At the first case management conference, the court shall address any pendente lite relief requested, identify and schedule any anticipated applications and/or schedule another hearing to address any requested relief. At the second case management conference, the court shall fix a trial date, address any stipulations between the parties, address anticipated applications, address the completion of discovery or expert or third party reports, narrow the issues, schedule mediation and fix the time for the filing of briefs and pre-marked documents.

(a) Allocation of Support. . . . no change.

(b) Cases Enforced [Payments Administered] by the Probation Division. In cases where venue of a support case is transferred, Probation supervision of the case shall concurrently be transferred to the county of venue, unless the court otherwise orders for cause. The responsibility for the administration and enforcement of the judgment or order, including the transfer of responsibility, shall be governed by the policies established by the Administrative Director of the Courts. Alimony, maintenance, or child support payments not presently administered by the Probation Division shall be so made on application of either party to the court unless the other party, on application to the court, shows good cause to the contrary. A probation account shall be established on the automated child support system within eight business days of the date the court order was signed. Demographic information provided on the Confidential Litigant Information Sheet shall be required to establish a probation account and send case initiation documents to the parties and the obligor's employer. 5:7-4A. Income Withholding for Child Support; Notices [new]

(a) Immediate Income Withholding. All orders that include child support shall be paid through immediate income withholding from the obligor's current and future income, unless the parties agree in writing to an alternative arrangement, or either party shows and the court finds good cause for an alternative arrangement. If included in the same order as child support, the court may, in its discretion, garnish a separate amount for alimony, maintenance or spousal support, in accordance with N.J.S.A. 2A:17-50 et seq., and include such amount in the immediate income withholding order.

(1) Application. Immediate income withholding applies to all orders that include child support established or modified on or after October 1, 1990.

(2) Procedure. If an order or judgment contains a child support provision, the child support shall be paid through immediate income withholding and the withholding may include amounts for alimony, maintenance or spousal support, unless the parties agree, in writing, to an alternative arrangement or either party shows and the court finds good cause for an alternative arrangement. The court shall forward the order to the Probation Division which shall prepare and send a Notice to Payor of Income Withholding to the obligor's employer or other source of income.

(3) Advance Notice. Every complaint, notice or pleading for the entry or modification of a child support order shall include the following written notice: In accordance with N.J.S.A. 2A:17-56.7 et seq., the child support provisions of a court order are subject to income withholding on the effective date of the order unless the parties agree, in writing, to an alternative arrangement or either party shows and the court finds good cause to establish an alternative arrangement. The income withholding is effective upon all types of income including wages from current and future employment.

(b) Initiated Income Withholding. When any child support order, which is not subject to immediate income withholding in accordance with paragraph (a), has an accumulated arrearage equal to or exceeding the amount of support payable for 14 days, the Probation Division supervising the support order shall initiate an income withholding against the obligor's current and future income that is subject to income withholding.

(1) Application. Initiated income withholding applies to all orders which include child support (a) entered prior to October 1, 1990, (b) entered or modified after October 1, 1990 that do not include a provision for immediate income withholding or (c) in which the parties have agreed, in writing, to an alternative arrangement and an arrearage equal to or in excess of the amount of support payable for 14 days exists. Initiated income withholding does not apply to alimony, maintenance or spousal support provisions.

(2) Procedure. When any child support order is in default in an amount equal to or in excess of the amount of support payable for 14 days, the Probation Division of the County responsible for monitoring and enforcing compliance with the order or judgment shall initiate an income withholding against any of the obligor's income, which is subject to income withholding. The Probation Division shall send, by regular mail, a Notice to Obligor of Income Withholding to the obligor's last known address. This notice shall be postmarked no later than 10 days after the date on which the case was identified as having the requisite 14-day arrearage and shall be mailed at the same time as the notice to the payor. The notice shall inform the obligor of the amounts withheld for current support and for the liquidation of arrearages and state that the withholding has commenced. An obligor may contest the withholding only on the basis of mistake of fact. If an obligor objects to the withholding, the Probation Division shall schedule a hearing or administrative review within 20 days after receiving notice of the contest of the withholding. Payment of arrearages after the due date shall not constitute good cause to terminate the withholding. No later than five days after the hearing or administrative review, the Probation Division shall notify the obligor, in writing, whether the withholding shall continue.

(3) Advance Notice. All orders that include child support and that are not subject to immediate income withholding as described in paragraph (a) shall include a notice to the obligor stating that: The child support provisions of a support order are subject to income withholding when a child support arrearage has accrued in an amount equal to or in excess of the amount of support payable for 14 days. The withholding is effective against the obligor's current and future income from all sources authorized by law.

(c) Rules Applicable to All Withholdings. The income withholding shall be binding on the obligor's employer (or other source of income) and successive payors of the obligor's income, immediately after service of the Notice to Payor of Income Withholding upon the payor of such income. An employer (or other source of income) is not required to alter normal pay cycles to comply with the withholding, but shall withhold and forward the required amount beginning with the first pay period that ends immediately after the notice is postmarked and each time the obligor is paid thereafter. The Notice to Payor of Income Withholding shall state the payor of the obligor's income, except for the Division of Unemployment and Temporary Disability, may deduct a fee of $1.00 for each payment. Such fee shall be deducted from the obligor's income in addition to the amount withheld for child support. The total amount of the withholding shall not exceed the maximum amount permitted under section 303(b) of the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act (15 U.S.C.A. § 1673(b)). If the court modifies any support order based upon changed circumstances, the Probation Division shall notify the payor to change the income withholding accordingly. When the Probation Division is unable to locate the obligor's current employer or other source of income to effectuate an income withholding, it may use any other procedures authorized by law to obtain this information. An income withholding for child support shall have priority over all other legal processes under State law without regard to the date of entry. If the obligor has more than one support order subject to withholding, the employer or other source of income shall withhold the payments on a pro-rata basis. The income withholding shall remain in effect until such time as the court enters an order to the contrary and the Probation Division delivers a Notice of Termination of Income Withholding to the employer or other source of income. An employer may not use an income withholding as a basis for discharge, discipline or discrimination in hiring. An aggrieved obligor may institute court action against the employer or other source of income as set forth in N.J.S.A. 2A:17-56.12. If the obligor's source of income fails to comply with a Notice to Payor of Income Withholding, it is liable for amounts that should have been withheld. The employer or other source of income shall notify the Probation Division promptly upon termination of the obligor's employment. If an employer or other source of income fails to comply with the terms of the income withholding or any withholding provision in this paragraph, the court may, upon application of the Probation Division, issue an Order to Show Cause for Contempt against the payor and proceed with contempt proceedings under Rule 1:10-3. The forms and notices required herein shall be prescribed by the Administrative Director of the Courts.

(d) All Notices Applicable to All Orders and Judgments That Include Child Support Provisions. The judgment or order shall include notices stating: (1) if support is not paid through immediate income withholding, the child support provisions of an order or judgment are subject to income withholding when a child support arrearage has accrued in an amount equal to or in excess of the amount of support payable for 14 days; the withholding is effective against the obligor's current and future income from all sources authorized by law; (2) any payment or installment of an order for child support or those portions of an order that are allocated for child support shall be fully enforceable and entitled to full faith and credit and shall be a judgment by operation of law against the obligor on or after the date it is due; before entry of a warrant of satisfaction of the child support judgment, any party to whom the child support is owed has the right to request assessment of post-judgment interest on child support judgments; (3) no payment or installment of an order for child support or those portions of an order that are allocated for child support shall be retroactively modified by the court except for the period during which the party seeking relief has pending an application for modification as provided in N.J.S.A. 2A:17-56.23a; (4) the occupational, recreational, and professional licenses, including a license to practice law, held or applied for by the obligor may be denied, suspended or revoked if: (i) a child support arrearage accumulates that is equal to or exceeds the amount of child support payable for six months, or (ii) the obligor fails to provide health care coverage for the child as ordered by the court within six months, or (iii) a warrant for the obligor's arrest has been issued by the court for obligor's failure to pay child support as ordered, or for obligor's failure to appear at a hearing to establish paternity or child support, or for obligor's failure to appear at a child support hearing to enforce a child support order and said warrant remains outstanding; (5) the driver's license held or applied for by the obligor may be denied, suspended, or revoked if (i) a child support arrearage accumulates that is equal to or exceeds the amount of child support payable for six months, or (ii) the obligor fails to provide health care coverage for the child as ordered by the court within six months; (6) the driver's license held or applied for by the obligor shall be denied, suspended, or revoked if the court issues a warrant for the obligor's arrest for failure to pay child support as ordered, or for failure to appear at a hearing to establish paternity or child support, or for failure to appear at a child support hearing to enforce a child support order and said warrant remains outstanding; (7) the amount of child support and/or the addition of a health care coverage provision in Title IV-D cases shall be subject to review, at least once every three years, on written request by either party to the Division of Family Development, P.O. Box 716, Trenton, NJ 08625-0716 and adjusted by the court, as appropriate, or upon application to the court; (8) the parties are required to notify the appropriate Probation Division of any change of employer, address, or health care coverage provider within 10 days of the change and that failure to provide such information shall be considered a violation of the order; (9) in accordance with N.J.S.A. 2A:34-23b, the custodial parent may require the non-custodial parent's health care coverage provider to make payments directly to the health care provider by submitting a copy of the relevant sections of the order to the insurer; (10) Social Security numbers are collected and used in accordance with section 205 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C.A. § 405), that disclosure of an individual's Social Security number for Title IV-D purposes is mandatory, that Social Security numbers are used to obtain income, employment, and benefit information on individuals through computer matching programs with federal and state agencies, and that such information is used to establish and enforce child support under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C.A. § 651 et seq.); and (11) after a judgment or order is entered and a probation support account has been established, the obligee and the obligor shall notify the appropriate Probation Division of any change of employer, health insurance provider, or address and the obligee and obligor shall notify the Probation Division of a change of address or a change in the status of the children as may be required in the order or judgment within ten days of the change, and any judgment or order that includes alimony, maintenance, or child support shall so provide. Failure to provide information as to change of employer, health insurance provider, address, or status of the children shall be considered a violation of the order.

5:7-5. Failure to Pay; Enforcement by the Court or Party; [Income Withholding for Child Support;] Suspension and Revocation of Licenses for Failure to Support Dependents; Execution of Assets for Child Support; Child Support Judgments and Post-Judgment Interest

(a) Application for Relief in Aid of Litigant's Rights. If a person fails to make payments or provide health insurance coverage as directed by an order or judgment, the Probation Division responsible for monitoring and enforcing compliance shall notify such person by mail that such failure may result in the institution of Relief to Litigant proceedings in accordance with R. 1:10-3 and R. 5:3-7(b). Upon the accumulation of a support arrearage equal to or in excess of the amount of support payable for 14 days or failure to provide health insurance coverage as ordered, the Probation Division shall file a verified statement setting forth the facts establishing disobedience of the order or judgment. The Probation Division may then, on the litigant's behalf, apply to the court for relief in accordance with R. 1:10-3 and R. 5:3-7(b). Actions for relief under this rule shall be brought in the county in which the support case is being enforced, unless another county is designated by court order. If the application for relief is made on behalf of a party by the Probation Division, filing fees shall be waived. If the application for relief is made by or on behalf of the obligee, other than by the Probation Division, and the applicant states under oath in the application that he or she is indigent and unable to pay the required filing fees, the court, if satisfied of the fact of indigency, may waive the payment of such fees. In the discretion of the court, filing fees subsequently may be assessed against the adverse party if it is determined that he or she has not complied with the order or judgment being enforced. For past-due alimony or child support payments that have not been docketed as a civil money judgment with the Clerk of the Superior Court, the court may, on its own motion or on motion by the party bringing the enforcement action, assess costs against the adverse party at the rate prescribed by R. 4:42-11(a). For past-due child support payments that have been docketed as a civil money judgment, see paragraph [g] d of this Rule.

(b) Suspension and Revocation of Licenses for Failure to Support Dependents.

(1) Driver's License, Recreational Activity License, Professional License.

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:17-56.41, a child support obligor's driver's license shall be suspended by operation of law upon the issuance of a child support-related warrant. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:17-56.41 to 56.52, an obligor's licenses to drive, participate in recreational activities, or to practice licensed occupations may be denied, suspended, or revoked after notice and a hearing if:

(3) Transmittal of Order Suspending or Revoking License. The Probation Division shall immediately forward a copy of the order denying, suspending, or revoking an obligor's license to the obligor and the appropriate licensing authorities. (4) Term of Suspension/Restoration of License. A court order denying, suspending, or revoking an obligor's license shall remain in effect until the obligor files with the licensing authority either a court order restoring the license or a Probation Division certification attesting to the full satisfaction of the child support arrearage. Within three working days of the full payment of the child support arrearage, the Probation Division shall provide the court with a certification stating that the obligor has satisfied the past-due child support amount. Upon receipt of the certification, the court shall issue an order restoring the obligor's licenses. The Probation Division shall immediately forward the restoration order or certification to the obligor. The obligor is responsible for filing the court order or Probation certification with the licensing authority. If a license to practice law in New Jersey was suspended by the Supreme Court pursuant to R. 1:20-11A, the attorney shall forward the Chancery Division, Family Part order that recommends the restoration of the license to the Clerk of the Supreme Court and a copy of the order to the Director of the Office of Attorney Ethics. The Motor Vehicle Commission, upon receipt of the order or certification, may reinstate the obligor's driving privileges, provided that the obligor pays the Division's restoration fee.

The court shall forward the order to the Probation Division which shall prepare and send a Notice to Payor of Income Withholding to the obligor's employer or other source of income.

The notice shall inform the obligor of the amounts withheld for current support and for the liquidation of arrearages and state that the withholding has commenced. An obligor may contest the withholding only on the basis of mistake of fact. If the court modifies any support order based upon changed circumstances, the Probation Division shall notify the payor to change the income withholding accordingly. When the Probation Division is unable to locate the obligor's current employer or other source of income to effectuate an income withholding, it may use any other procedures authorized by law to obtain this information. An income withholding for child support shall have priority over all other legal processes under State law without regard to the date of entry. The income withholding shall remain in effect until such time as the court enters an order to the contrary and the Probation Division delivers a Notice of Termination of Income Withholding to the employer or other source of income. An employer may not use an income withholding as a basis for discharge, discipline or discrimination in hiring. An aggrieved obligor may institute court action against the employer or other source of income as set forth in N.J.S.A. 2A:17-56.12. If the obligor's source of income fails to comply with a Notice to Payor of Income Withholding, it is liable for amounts that should have been withheld. The employer or other source of income shall notify the Probation Division promptly upon termination of the obligor's employment. If an employer or other source of income fails to comply with the terms of the income withholding or any withholding provision in this paragraph, the court may, upon application of the Probation Division, issue an Order to Show Cause for Contempt against the payor and proceed with contempt proceedings under Rule 1:10-3. The forms and notices required herein shall be prescribed by the Administrative Director of the Courts.]

[(e) Suspension and Revocation of Licenses for Failure to Support Dependents.]

(1) General Provisions. If a child support arrearage equals or exceeds the amount of child support payable for six months, or court-ordered health care coverage for a child is not provided within six months of the date that it is ordered, or the obligor fails to respond to a subpoena relating to a paternity or child support action, or a warrant for the obligor's arrest has been issued by the court due to the failure to pay child support as ordered, failure to appear at a hearing to establish paternity or child support, or failure to appear at a child support hearing to enforce a child support order, and said warrant remains outstanding, and the obligor is found to possess a license in the State of New Jersey, including a license to practice law, and attempts to enforce the support provisions through income withholding, withholding of civil lawsuit awards, and the execution of assets, when available, have been exhausted, the Probation Division shall send a written notice to the obligor, by certified and regular mail, return receipt requested, at the obligor's last-known address or place of business or employment, stating that the obligor's licenses may be revoked or suspended unless, within 30 days of the postmark date of the notice, the obligor pays the full amount of past-due child support, or provides proof that health care coverage for the child has been obtained, or responds to a subpoena, or makes a written request for a court hearing to the Probation Division. If a child support-related warrant exists, the license revocation or suspension will be terminated if the obligor pays the full amount of the child support arrearage, provides proof that health care coverage for the child has been obtained, or surrenders to the county sheriff or the Probation Division. No license revocation action shall be initiated if the Probation Division has received notice that the obligor has pending a motion to modify the child support order if that motion was filed prior to the date that the notice of the license suspension or revocation was sent by the Probation Division. If the court issues a warrant for the obligor's arrest for failure to pay child support as ordered, or for failure to appear at a hearing to establish paternity or child support, or for failure to appear at a child support hearing to enforce a child support order, and said warrant remains outstanding, the Probation Division shall immediately notify the Motor Vehicle Commission of the warrant and the requirement to suspend the obligor's driving privileges pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:17-56.41.

(2) Suspension by Default of the Obligor. If, after receiving notice of a proposed license suspension or revocation, the obligor fails to take one of the actions specified in paragraph (e)(1) of this Rule, the Probation Division shall provide the court with a certification setting forth the obligor's non-compliance and failure to respond to the written notice of the pending license revocation or suspension as well as proof of service of the written notice of license suspension or denial. If, based on the papers filed by the Probation Division, the court is satisfied that service on the obligor was effective as set forth below, it shall, without need for further due process or hearing, enter an order suspending or revoking all licenses held by the obligor except that if the obligor is an attorney licensed to practice law in New Jersey, the order shall notify the Supreme Court to suspend the obligor's license to practice law.

(3) Service of the Notice of Proposed License Suspension or Revocation. For the purpose of license suspensions or revocations initiated in accordance with this paragraph, simultaneous certified and regular mailing of the written notice shall constitute effective service. The court may deem procedural due process requirements for notice and service of process to be met with respect to a party thereto upon delivery of written notice to the most recent residential or employer address filed with the Probation Division for that party. If a party fails to respond to a notice and no proof is available that the party received the notice, the Probation Division shall document to the court that it has made a diligent effort to locate the party by making inquiries that may include, but are not limited to: the United States Postal Service, the Motor Vehicle Commission, the Division of Taxation in the Department of the Treasury, the Department of Corrections, and the Department of Labor. The Probation Division shall provide an affidavit to the court presenting such documentation of its diligent effort, which certifies its inability to locate the party. If the United States Postal Service returns the mail to the Probation Division within the 30-day response period marked "moved, unable to forward," "addressee not known," "no such number/street," "insufficient address," or "forwarding order expired," the court may deem procedural due process requirements for notice and service of process to be met upon a finding that the Probation Division has provided the affidavit documenting the diligent effort to locate the party. If the certified mail is returned for any other reason without the return of the regular mail, the regular mail service shall constitute effective service. If the mail is addressed to the obligor at the obligor's place of business or employment, with postal instructions to deliver to the addressee only, service will be deemed effective only if the signature on the return receipt appears to be that of the obligor. Acceptance of certified mail notice signed by the obligor, the obligor's attorney, or a competent member of the obligor's household above the age of 14 shall be deemed effective service.

(4) License Suspension or Revocation Hearings. If the obligor requests a hearing, the Probation Division shall file a petition for a court hearing, which shall occur within 45 days of the obligor's request. If, at or prior to the hearing, the obligor pays the full amount of the child support arrearage or provides proof that health care coverage for the child has been obtained or responds to the subpoena or surrenders to the county sheriff or the Probation Division, the license revocation process shall be terminated. The court shall suspend or revoke the obligor's licenses (if the obligor is an attorney licensed to practice law in New Jersey, the order shall notify the Supreme Court to suspend the obligor's license to practice law) if it finds that: (a) all appropriate enforcement methods have been exhausted, (b) the obligor is the holder of a license, (c) the requisite child support arrearage amount exists or health care coverage for the child has not been provided as ordered, (d) no motion to modify the child support order, filed prior to the date that the notice of the license suspension or revocation was sent by the Probation Division, is pending before the court, and (e) there is no equitable reason, such as involuntary unemployment, disability, or compliance with a court-ordered plan for the periodic payment of the child support arrearage amount, for the obligor's non-compliance with the child support order. If the court is satisfied that these conditions exist, it shall first consider suspending or revoking the obligor's driver's license prior to a professional or occupational license. If the obligor fails to appear at the hearing after being properly served with notice, the court shall order the suspension or revocation of all licenses held by the obligor except that if the obligor is an attorney licensed to practice law in New Jersey, the order shall notify the Supreme Court to suspend the obligor's license to practice law. In the case of a driver's license, if the court finds that the license revocation or suspension will result in a significant hardship to the obligor, to the obligor's legal dependents under 18 years of age living in the obligor's household, to the obligor's employees, or to persons, businesses, or entities to whom the obligor provides goods or services, the court may allow the obligor to pay 25% of the past-due child support amount within three working days of the hearing, establish a payment schedule to satisfy the remainder of the arrearages within one year, and require that the obligor comply with any current child support obligation. If the obligor agrees to this arrangement, no suspension or revocation of any licenses shall be ordered. Compliance with the payment agreement shall be monitored by the Probation Division. If the obligor has good cause for not complying with the payment agreement within the time permitted, the obligor shall immediately file a motion with the court and the Probation Division requesting an extension of the payment plan. The court may extend the payment plan if it is satisfied that the obligor has made a good faith effort to comply with the plan and is unable to satisfy the full amount of past-due support within the time permitted due to circumstances beyond the obligor's control. In no case shall a payment plan extend beyond the date that the dependent child reaches the age of 18. If the obligor fails to comply with the court-ordered payment schedule, the court shall, upon receipt of a certification of non-compliance from the Probation Division, and without further hearing, order the immediate revocation or suspension of all licenses held by the obligor. If the obligor is an attorney licensed to practice law in New Jersey, the order shall notify the Supreme Court to suspend the obligor's license to practice law. If required by existing law or regulation, the court shall order that the obligor surrender the license to the issuing authority within 30 days of the date of the order.

(5) Transmittal of Order Suspending or Revoking License. If the court issues an order suspending or revoking a license pursuant to paragraph (e) of this Rule, the Probation Division shall forward a copy of the order to the obligor and all appropriate licensing authorities. If the order notifies the Supreme Court to suspend a license to practice law in New Jersey, the Probation Division shall forward the order to the Clerk of the Supreme Court and a copy to the Director of the Office of Attorney Ethics. The suspension of a license to practice law in the State of New Jersey pursuant to paragraph (e) of this Rule, shall be governed by R. 1:20-11A.

(6) Relief from Suspension or Revocation Due to Mistaken Identity. If the licensee, upon receipt of the notice of suspension or revocation from the licensing authority, disputes that he or she is the obligor, the licensee shall notify the licensing authority and the Probation Division by registered mail within 20 days of the postmark date of the notice and request a hearing. Upon receipt of the licensee's request for a hearing, the Probation Division shall determine if the licensee is the obligor. If the Probation Division determines that the licensee is not the obligor, the Probation Division shall so notify the licensee and the licensing authority. If the Probation Division determines that the licensee is the obligor and the licensee still disputes this finding, the Probation Division shall file a petition for a court hearing to resolve the issue. The hearing shall be held within 30 days of the date that the Probation Division determines that a hearing is required. If a hearing is held to determine if the licensee is the obligor, the Probation Division shall notify the licensing authority of the court's finding.

(7) Term of Suspension/Restoration of License. A license suspension or revocation ordered by the court remains in effect until the obligor files with the licensing authority either a court order restoring the license or a Probation Division certification attesting to the full satisfaction of the child support arrearage. Within three working days of the full payment of the child support arrearage, the Probation Division shall provide the court with a certification stating that the obligor has satisfied the past-due child support amount. Upon receipt of the certification, the court shall issue an order restoring the obligor's licenses. The Probation Division shall immediately forward the restoration order or certification to the obligor. The obligor is responsible for filing the court order or Probation certification with the licensing authority. If a license to practice law in New Jersey was suspended by the Supreme Court pursuant to R. 1:20-11A, the attorney shall forward the Chancery Division, Family Part order that recommends the restoration of the license to the Clerk of the Supreme Court and a copy of the order to the Director of the Office of Attorney Ethics. The reinstatement of a license to practice law in New Jersey shall be governed by R. 1:20-11A. When the court issues an order to vacate a child support-related warrant or local law enforcement authorities execute the warrant, the Probation Division shall send a certification or the court's order to the obligor and to the Motor Vehicle Commission indicating that the child support-related warrant is no longer effective. The Motor Vehicle Commission, upon receipt of the order or certification, may reinstate the obligor's driving privileges, provided that the obligor pays the Division's restoration fee.]

5:7-11. Application for Title IV-D Child Support Services; Probation Division Enforcement; Monitoring-Only Services [new]

(a) IV-D Application. Any party seeking full Title IV-D enforcement services by the Probation Division of an order that includes the payment of child support, or spousal support in conjunction with child support on the same order, shall submit a completed Title IV-D application, except as otherwise provided by law. An application fee must be paid by the party applying for services or paid by the State out of its own funds and may be recovered from the non-custodial parent, except as otherwise provided by law. The forms and procedures to implement the processing of the IV-D application and collection of the fee shall be prescribed by the Administrative Director of the Courts.

(b) Monitoring-Only Application. In the absence of the submission of a Title IV-D application for services, as required by paragraph (a) of this Rule, the Probation Division may provide monitoring-only services of support orders that are paid to the New Jersey Family Support Payment Center. Monitoring-only services shall be limited to entering and updating of case demographics on the statewide automated system, and the collection, disbursement and recording of payments made to the New Jersey Family Support Payment Center. In the absence of a Title IV-D application, the Probation Division shall not provide any enforcement services. A party may apply for limited, monitoring-only services, by completing a monitoring-only application and pay the applicable fee. The forms and procedures to implement the processing of the monitoring-only application and collection of the fee shall be prescribed by the Administrative Director of the Courts.

If the order, when initially entered, contains a provision for the payment of child support or spousal support in conjunction with child support on the same order, the support shall be paid through immediate income withholding, unless either party shows and the court finds good cause for an alternative arrangement.

A copy of the complaint, executed order to show cause and proposed order of parentage shall be served on the State registrar of vital statistics pursuant to R. 4:4-4(a)(7), and any other party in interest. Proof of service shall be filed with the court on or before the return date.

(c) Return on Order to Show Cause.

(1) If the gestational carrier, and her spouse or civil union partner, if applicable, the State registrar of vital statistics and any other party in interest, have not filed an objection with the Surrogate, or appeared in court, an order of parentage shall be signed on the return date. The order of parentage shall state: (A) the order of parentage shall be issued and become effective upon the filing of a relinquishment of parental rights executed and acknowledged by the gestational carrier, and spouse or civil union partner, if applicable, after seventy-two (72) hours from the birth of the child, and (B) the petitioners shall be the sole parents of the child born to the gestational carrier. Personal appearances of the parties on the return date shall not be required unless there is an objection to the relief requested.

RPC 7.5. Firm Names and Letterheads

(a) . . . no change.

(b) . . . no change.

(c) . . . no change.

(d) . . . no change.

(e) A law firm name may include additional identifying language such as "& Associates" only when such language is accurate and descriptive of the firm. Any firm name including additional identifying language such as "Legal Services" or other similar phrases shall inform all prospective clients in the retainer agreement or other writing that the law firm is not affiliated or associated with a public, quasi-public or charitable organization. However, no firm shall use the phrase "legal aid" in its name or in any additional identifying language. Use of a trade name shall be permissible so long as it describes the nature of the firm's legal practice in terms that are accurate, descriptive, and informative, but not misleading, comparative, or suggestive of the ability to obtain results. Such trade names shall be accompanied by the full or last names of one or more of the lawyers practicing in the firm or the names of lawyers who are no longer associated in the firm through death or retirement.

(f) . . . no change.

Note: Adopted July 12, 1984, to be effective September 10, 1984; paragraphs (a) and (d) amended, paragraph (e) amended and redesignated as paragraph (f) and new paragraph (e) added June 29, 1990, to be effective September 4, 1990; paragraph (a) amended January 5, 2009 to be effective immediately; paragraph (e) amended, and Official Comment adopted July 27, 2015 to be effective September 1, 2015.

Official Comment to RPC 7.5(e) by Supreme Court (July 27, 2015)

By way of example, "Millburn Tax Law Associates, John Smith, Esq." would be permissible under the trade name provision of this rule, as would "Smith & Jones Millburn Personal Injury Lawyers," provided that the law firm's primary location is in Millburn and its primary practice area is tax law or personal injury law, respectively. "John Smith Criminal Defense and Municipal Law" would also be permissible. However, neither "Best Tax Lawyers" nor "Tax Fixers" would be permissible, the former being comparative and the latter being suggestive of the ability to achieve results. Similarly, "Budget Lawyer John Smith, Esq." is not permissible as it is comparative and likely to be misleading; "Million Dollar Personal Injury Lawyer John Smith, Esq." is not permissible as it suggests the ability to achieve results; and "Tough As Nails Lawyer John Smith, Esq." is not permissible as it purports to describe the lawyer and does not describe the nature of the firm's legal practice.

CONSIDERATIONS IN THE USE OF CHILD SUPPORT GUIDELINES

(Includes amendments through those effective [May 1, 2015] September 1, 2015)

1. Philosophy of the Child Support Guidelines . . . no change.
2. Use of the Child Support Guidelines as a Rebuttable Presumption . . . no change.
3. Deviating from the Child Support Guidelines . . . no change.
4. The Income Shares Approach to Sharing Child-Rearing Expenses . . . no change.
5. Economic Basis for the Child Support Guidelines . . . no change.
6. Economic Principles Included in the Child Support Guidelines . . . no change.
7. Assumptions Included in the Child Support Guidelines . . . no change.
8. Expenses Included in the Child Support Schedules) . . . no change.
9. Expenses That May Be Added to the Basic Child Support Obligation . . . no change.
10. Adjustments to the Support Obligation - The factors listed below may require an adjustment to the basic child support obligation.
 - a. Other Legal Dependents of Either Parent - These guidelines include a mechanism to apportion a parent's income to all of his or her legal dependents regardless of the timing of their birth or family association (i.e., if a divorced parent remarries and has children, that parent's income should be shared by all children born to that parent). Legal dependents include adopted or biological children of either parent who are less than 18 years of age or more than 18 years of age and still attending high school or other secondary school. Stepchildren are not considered legal dependents unless a court has found that the stepparent has a legal responsibility for the stepchildren. When considering the use of this adjustment, the following principles shall apply:
 - (1) where there is not an order requiring either parent to pay support for the other dependent this adjustment shall be used only if [requested by a serial-family parent and] the income, if any, of the other parent of the secondary family is provided to or ascertainable by the court;
 - (2) where there is not an order requiring either parent to pay support for the other dependent, if the other parent in the secondary family is voluntarily unemployed or underemployed, the court shall impute income to that person (see paragraph 12) to determine the serial family parent's obligation to the children in the secondary family;
 - (3) this adjustment may be applied to other dependents born before or after the child for whom support is being determined;
 - (4) this adjustment may be requested by either or both parents (custodial and/or non-custodial);

(5) the adjustment may be applied when the initial award is entered or during subsequent modifications of the support order.

b. Multiple Family Obligations - . . . no change.

c. Government Benefits Paid to or for Children - . . . no change.

11. Defining Income . . . no change.

12. Imputing Income to Parents - The fairness of a child support award resulting from the application of these guidelines is dependent on the accurate determination of a parent's net income. If the court finds that either parent is, without just cause, voluntarily underemployed or unemployed, it shall impute income to that parent according to the following priorities:

a. impute income based on potential employment and earning capacity using the parent's work history, occupational qualifications, educational background, and prevailing job opportunities in the region. The court may impute income based on the parent's former income at that person's usual or former occupation or the average earnings for that occupation as reported by the New Jersey Department of Labor (NJDOL);

b. if potential earnings cannot be determined, impute income based on the parent's most recent wage or benefit record (a minimum of two calendar quarters) on file with the NJDOL (note: NJDOL records include wage and benefit income only and, thus, may differ from the parent's actual income); or

c. if a NJDOL wage or benefit record is not available, impute income based on the full-time employment (40 hours) at the prevailing New Jersey minimum wage [$ 8.38 per hour].

13. Adjustments for PAR Time (formerly Visitation Time) . . . no change.

14. Shared-Parenting Arrangements . . . no change.

15. Split-Parenting Arrangements . . . no change.

16. Child in the Custody of a Third Party . . . no change.

17. Adjustments for the Age of the Children . . . no change.

18. College or Other Post-Secondary Education Expenses . . . no change.

19. Determining Child Support and Alimony or Spousal Support Simultaneously . . . no change.

20. Extreme Parental Income Situations . . . no change.

21. Other Factors that May Require an Adjustment to a Guidelines-Based Award . . . no change.

22. Stipulated Agreements . . . no change.

23. Modification of Support Awards . . . no change.

- 24. Effect of Emancipation of a Child . . . no change.
- 25. Support for a Child Who has Reached Majority . . . no change.
- 26. Health Insurance for Children . . . no change.
- 27. Unpredictable, Non-Recurring Unreimbursed Health-Care in Excess of $250 per Child per Year . . . no change.
- 28. Distribution of Worksheets and Financial Affidavits . . . no change.
- 29. Background Reports and Publications . . . no change.

Lines 1 through 5 - Determining Income . . . no change.

Line 1 - Gross Taxable Income . . . no change.

Line 1a - Mandatory Retirement Contributions . . . no change.

Line 1b - Alimony Paid . . . no change.

Line 1c - Alimony Received . . . no change.

Line 2 - Adjusted Gross Taxable Income . . . no change.

Line 2a - Withholding Taxes . . . no change.

Line 2b - Mandatory Union Dues - Enter each parent's weekly mandatory union dues in the appropriate Line 2b column.

Union dues must be mandatory (i.e., required as a condition of employment) to be eligible as a deduction from a parent's adjusted gross income. Calculate the weekly amount of mandatory union dues by dividing the year-to-date dues paid by the number of employed weeks or by using an average of the prior year's dues payments.

[Prior Child Support Orders - Enter the weekly amount of previously ordered child support in the appropriate Line 2b column.

Since previously ordered child support of other relationships represents income that is not available for determining the current child support obligation, the amount of such orders must be deducted from the obligor's weekly Adjusted Gross Taxable Income (in anticipation of the payment of the order).

In cases where the obligor must pay support to multiple families, considering these amounts in the guidelines worksheet may result in the obligor's net income falling below the self-support reserve, seriously affecting the support order for the most recent support case. In these instances, it may be necessary for the court to deviate from the guidelines.]

Line 2c - Child Support Orders for Other Dependents

Enter the weekly amount of court ordered child support of either parent for other legal dependents in the appropriate Line 2c column.

The child support orders for other dependents are part of an adjustment mechanism to apportion a parent's income to all legal dependents including those born before or after the children for whom support is being determined.

The adjustment requires that three support obligations be considered – (1) the court ordered support for the other dependents in the alternate family, (2) a support obligation that includes the court ordered support for the other dependents, and (3) a support obligation that does not include the court ordered support for the other dependents.

[Mandatory Union Dues - Enter each parent's weekly mandatory union dues in the appropriate Line 2c column.

Union dues must be mandatory (i.e., required as a condition of employment) to be eligible as a deduction from a parent's adjusted gross income. Calculate the weekly amount of mandatory union dues by dividing the year-to-date dues paid by the number of employed weeks or by using an average of the prior year's dues payments.]

Line 2d - Other-Dependent Deduction - Enter the theoretical weekly child support obligation for other legal dependents (from Line 14 of the Sole-Parenting worksheet prepared for the alternate family) on Line 2d of the worksheet of the parent requesting the adjustment. The Line 14 amount represents the parent's income share of the total marginal costs for the children in the alternate family. The obligation amount for other legal dependents (the other-dependent deduction) should be calculated on a separate Sole-Parenting Worksheet.

The other-dependent deduction is part of an adjustment mechanism to apportion a parent's income to all legal dependents including those born before or after the children for whom support is being determined. Legal dependents include adopted or natural children of either parent who are under 18 years of age or over 18 years of age and still attending high school or other secondary school. No adjustment is provided for stepchildren. Generally, stepchildren are considered the legal responsibility of their natural parents unless the court determines that a stepparent has a legal obligation to support the child.

The adjustment requires that three support obligations be calculated - a theoretical support obligation for the other dependents in the alternate family, a support obligation that includes the other-dependent deduction, and a support obligation that does not include the other-dependent deduction. The deduction and the adjusted support obligation are calculated only if [requested by a serial family parent and] the income of the other parent in the alternate family is provided to the court.

1. The amount of the deduction is the serial parent's theoretical support obligation for the other legal dependents. It requires that a separate Sole-Parenting child support guidelines worksheet be completed (through Line 14) for the children in the alternate family with the serial parent being the theoretical obligor of those children. The deduction is calculated based on the income of the parent claiming the deduction and the income of that person's current spouse.
2. A parent must disclose the gross income of the other parent in the alternate family as a condition to the right to claim this deduction. If the other parent in the secondary family is voluntarily unemployed or underemployed, the court may impute income to that person to determine the parent's obligation to the children in the secondary family.
3. The amount of the deduction shall not be calculated for alternate families having more than six children. In such cases, the court may find that the guidelines are inapplicable and may establish the child support award based on the factors set forth in N.J.S.A. 2A:34-23 and existing case law.

Line 3 - Net Taxable Income - Subtract the combined withholding tax, [prior] child support orders for other dependents, mandatory union dues, and the other-dependent deduction*, if any, from the Adjusted Gross Taxable Income to obtain the Net Taxable Income. (Math: Line 2 - Line 2a - Line 2b - Line 2c - Line 2d). Enter each parent's Net Taxable Income in the appropriate Line 3 column.

If the other-dependent adjustment is [requested] applied, three worksheets must be prepared: (1) one calculating the parent's [theoretical] obligation for other dependents [to dependents] in the secondary family, (2) one calculating a support award after deducting the [theoretical] obligation from the parent's net income, and (3) one calculating the support award as if there were no other dependents (i.e., the [theoretical] obligation without [the other dependent deduction] consideration of other dependents). Thus, [the other-dependent deduction is] financial obligations for other dependents are not always deducted when figuring net income. The support award is adjusted for other dependents at the end of the worksheet (Lines [21] 22 through [23] 24).

Line 4 - Non-Taxable Income . . . no change.

Line 5 - Government (Non-Means Tested) Benefit for the Child . . . no change.

Line 6 - Net Income . . . no change.

Line 7 - Each Parent's Share of Income . . . no change.

Line 8 - Basic Child Support Amount . . . no change.

Line 9 - Adding Net Work-Related Child Care Costs to the Basic Obligation . . . no change.

Line 10 - Adding Health Insurance Costs for the Child to the Basic Obligation . . . no change.

Line 11 - Adding Predictable and Recurring Unreimbursed Health Care to the Basic Obligation . . . no change.

Line 12 - Adding Court-Approved Predictable and Recurring Extraordinary Expenses to the Basic Support Amount . . . no change.

Line 13 - Calculating the Total Child Support Amount . . . no change.

Line 14 - Parental Share of the Total Child Support Obligation . . . no change.

Line 15 - Credit for Derivative Government Benefits for the Child Based on Contribution of the Non-Custodial Parent . . . no change.

Line 16 - Credit for Child-Care Payments . . . no change.

Line 17 - Credit for Payment of Child's Health Insurance Cost . . . no change.

Line 18 - Credit for Payment of Child's Predictable and Recurring Unreimbursed Health Care . . . no change.

Line 19 - Credit for Payment of Court-Approved Extraordinary Expenses . . . no change.

Line 20 - Adjustment for Parenting Time Variable Expenses . . . no change.

Line 20a - Number of Overnights with Each Parent . . . no change.

Line 20b - Each Parent's Share of Overnights with the Child . . . no change.

Line 21 - Net Child Support Obligation

Subtract the non-custodial parent's direct payments for child care, the child's share of the health insurance premium, predictable and recurring unreimbursed health care for the child above $250 per year per child, and predictable and recurring extraordinary court-approved expenses from the paying parent's share of the total support amount. Then, subtract the Line 20 credit, if any, from the non-custodial parent's support amount and the Line 15 credit, if any, for government benefits for the child based on contribution of the NCP. The result is the net child support obligation. (Math: (Line 14 - (Line 15 + Line 16 + Line 17 + Line 18 + Line 19 + Line 20)). Enter the net obligation on Line 21.

Direct payments and credits are subtracted from the total child support amount to find the net child support obligation. Direct payments may be deducted only if the cost was included in the total child support amount. The net child support obligation for the non-custodial parent is the support order that will be paid for the benefit of the children.

IF [NEITHER PARENT REQUESTED AN ADJUSTMENT FOR OTHER DEPENDENTS] THERE IS NO ADJUSTMENT FOR OTHER DEPENDENTS, GO TO LINE 25

Lines 22, 23, and 24 - Adjusting the Child Support Obligation for Other [-] Dependents

1. If either parent has court ordered child support obligations for other dependent children or [requests] an adjustment for other legal dependents is applicable, the following amounts must be considered: [three Sole Parenting worksheets must be prepared (if calculating the adjustment manually). The worksheets will result in the following obligation amounts:]

a. The amount of court ordered child support for other dependents (Line 2c) and the other dependent deduction (Line 2d) (where no support order exists for the dependent) – using the separate other dependent deduction worksheet; [a theoretical support obligation for the child in the alternate family (i.e., the parent requesting the adjustment is the theoretical obligor of the child in the alternate family);]

b. A [a] support obligation for the child for whom support is being determined calculated after deducting the total of the other dependent orders and deductions

(L2c + L2d); and [theoretical obligation for any other dependents from the responsible parent's gross income; and]

c. A [a] support obligation for the child for whom support is being determined calculated without deducting the other dependent orders (Line 2c) and deductions (Line 2d) from the responsible parent's gross income. [theoretical obligation for other dependents from the responsible parent's gross income.]

2. To ensure that a fair share of the parent's income is available to all his or her legal dependents, the child support obligation for the child for whom support is being determined will be calculated WITH an income deduction for the court ordered or theoretical support obligations for other dependents. Then, the support for the subject child will be calculated WITHOUT consideration of the court ordered or theoretical support obligation for other dependents. These two calculations will be averaged. [add the non-custodial parent's support obligation from the worksheet that includes the other-dependent deduction and the non-custodial parent's support obligation from the worksheet that does not include the other-dependent deduction. Divide the sum of the two obligations by two to obtain the adjusted child support obligation for the non-custodial parent.]

Line 22 - Line 21 CS Obligation With Deduction for Other Dependents [Other Dependent Deduction]

Enter the amount of the net child support obligation (Line 21) from the worksheet that deducted the [theoretical] support obligation for the parent's other dependents from the parent's net income (i.e., with the Line 2c child support order for other dependents and Line 2d other [-] dependent deduction) [amount deducted from the parent's gross income]. Note: the Line 2d other dependent deduction [theoretical support obligation for children in the alternate family] is calculated on a separate sole parenting worksheet.

Line 23 - Line 21 CS Obligation Without Deduction for Other Dependents [Other Dependent Deduction]

Enter the amount of the net child support obligation (Line 21) from the worksheet that did not deduct the [theoretical] support obligation for other dependents ([Line] Lines 2c and 2d) from the parent's net income. [was calculated.] Note: The Line 2d other dependent deduction [theoretical support obligation for children in the secondary family] is calculated on a separate worksheet.

Line 24 - Obligation Adjusted for Other Dependents

Add the Line 22 support obligation that includes deductions for other dependents (Line 2c and Line 2d) [the other-dependent deduction] and the Line 23 support obligation that does not include deductions for other dependents [the other dependent deduction], then divide the sum by two to obtain the Adjusted Child Support Obligation for the non-custodial parent. (Math: (Line 22) + (Line 23) ÷ 2)). Enter the result on Line 24.

Union dues must be mandatory (i.e., required as a condition of employment) to be eligible as a deduction from a parent's adjusted gross income. Calculate the weekly amount of mandatory union dues by dividing the year-to-date dues paid by the number of employed weeks or by using an average of the prior year's dues payments.

[Prior Child Support Orders - Enter the weekly amount of previously ordered child support in the appropriate Line 2b column.

Since previously ordered child support of other relationships represents income that is not available for determining the current child support obligation, the amount of such orders must be deducted from the obligor's weekly Adjusted Gross Taxable Income (in anticipation of the payment of the order).

In cases where the obligor must pay support to multiple families, considering these amounts in the guidelines worksheet may result in the obligor's net income falling below the self-support reserve, seriously affecting the support order for the most recent support case. In these instances, it may be necessary for the court to deviate from the guidelines.]

Line 2c – Child Support Orders for Other Dependents

Enter the weekly amount of court ordered child support of either parent for other legal dependents in the appropriate Line 2c column.

The child support orders for other dependents are part of an adjustment mechanism to apportion a parent's income to all legal dependents including those born before or after the children for whom support is being determined

The adjustment requires that three support obligations be considered – (1) the court ordered support for the other dependents in the alternate family, (2) a support obligation that includes the court ordered support for the other dependents, and (3) a support obligation that does not include the court ordered support for the other dependents.

[Mandatory Union Dues - Enter each parent's weekly mandatory union dues in the appropriate Line 2c column.

Union dues must be mandatory (i.e., required as a condition of employment) to be eligible as a deduction from a parent's adjusted gross income. Calculate the weekly amount of mandatory union dues by dividing the year-to-date dues paid by the number of employed weeks or by using an average of the prior year's dues payments.]

Line 2d - Other-Dependent Deduction - Enter the theoretical weekly child support obligation for other legal dependents (from Line 14 of the Sole-Parenting worksheet prepared for the alternate family) on Line 2d of the worksheet of the parent requesting the adjustment. The Line 14 amount represents the parent's income share of the total marginal costs for the children in the alternate family. The obligation amount for other legal dependents (the other-dependent deduction) should be calculated on a separate Sole-Parenting Worksheet.

The other-dependent deduction is part of an adjustment mechanism to apportion a parent's income to all legal dependents including those born before or after the children for whom support is being determined. Legal dependents include adopted or natural children of either parent who are under 18 years of age or over 18 years of age and still attending high school or other secondary school. No adjustment is provided for stepchildren. Generally, stepchildren are considered the legal responsibility of their natural parents unless the court determines that a stepparent has a legal obligation to support the child.

The adjustment requires that three support obligations be calculated - a theoretical support obligation for the other dependents in the alternate family, a support obligation that includes the other-dependent deduction, and a support obligation that does not include the other-dependent deduction. The deduction and the adjusted support obligation are calculated only if [requested by a serial family parent and] the income of the other parent in the alternate family is provided to the court.

1. The amount of the deduction is the serial parent's theoretical support obligation for the other legal dependents. It requires that a separate Sole-Parenting child support guidelines worksheet be completed (through Line 14) for the children in the alternate family with the serial parent being the theoretical obligor of those children. The deduction is calculated based on the income of the parent claiming the deduction and the income of that person's current spouse.
2. A parent must disclose the gross income of the other parent in the alternate family as a condition to the right to claim this deduction. If the other parent in the secondary family is voluntarily unemployed or under-employed, the court may impute income to that person to determine the parent's obligation to the children in the secondary family.
3. The amount of the deduction shall not be calculated for alternate families having more than six children. In such cases, the court may find that the guidelines are inapplicable and may establish the child support award based on the factors set forth in N.J.S.A. 2A:34-23 and existing case law.

Line 3 - Net Taxable Income - Subtract the combined withholding tax, [prior] child support orders for other dependents, mandatory union dues, and the other-dependent deduction*, if any, from the Adjusted Gross Taxable Income to obtain the Net Taxable Income. (Math: Line 2 - Line 2a - Line 2b - Line 2c - Line 2d). Enter each parent's Net Taxable Income in the appropriate Line 3 column.

If the other-dependent adjustment is [requested] applied*, three worksheets must be prepared: (1) one calculating the parent's [theoretical] obligation for other dependents [to dependents] in the secondary family, (2) one calculating a support award after deducting the [theoretical] obligation from the parent's net income, and (3) one calculating the support award as if there were no other dependents (i.e., the [theoretical] obligation without [the other dependent deduction] consideration of other dependents). Thus, financial obligations for other dependents [the other-dependent deduction is] are not always deducted when figuring net income. The support award is adjusted for other dependents using Lines [29] 30 through [31] 32.

Lines 30, 31 and 32 - Adjusting the Child Support Obligation for Other Dependents

1. If either parent has court ordered child support obligations for other dependent children or [requests] an adjustment for other legal dependents is applicable, the following amounts must be considered: [a sole parenting worksheet must be prepared to determine the parent's theoretical support obligation for his or her other dependents. Additionally, two separate shared parenting worksheets must be completed (if calculating the adjustment manually). The three worksheets will result in the following obligation amounts:]

a. The amount of court ordered child support for other dependents (Line 2c) and the other dependent deduction Line 2d (where no support order exists for the dependent) – using the separate other dependent deduction worksheet; [Sole Parenting - a theoretical support obligation for the child in the alternate family (i.e., the parent requesting the adjustment is the theoretical obligor of the child in the alternate family);]

b. [Primary Shared Parenting – a] A support obligation for the child for whom support is being determined calculated after the total of the other dependent orders and deductions (L2c + L2d); [theoretical obligation for any other dependents (Line 2d) is deducted from the responsible parent's gross income;] and

c. [Alternate Shared Parenting -] A support obligation for the child for whom support is being determined calculated without deducting the other dependent orders (Line 2c) and deductions (Line 2d) from the responsible parent's gross income. [theoretical obligation for other dependents (Line 2d) from the responsible parent's gross income.]

2. To ensure that a fair share of the parent's income is available to all his or her legal dependents, the child support obligation for the child for whom support is being determined will be calculated WITH an income deduction for the court ordered or theoretical support obligations for other dependents. Then, the support for the subject child will be calculated WITHOUT consideration of the court ordered or theoretical support obligation for other dependents. These two calculations will be averaged. [add the parent's support obligation from the worksheet that includes the Line 2d other-dependent deduction and the parent's support obligation from the worksheet that does not include the Line 2d other dependent deduction. Divide the sum of the two support obligations by two to obtain the adjusted child support obligation.]

Line 30 - Line 29 PAR CS Obligation WITH Deductions for Other Dependents [Other Dependent Deduction]

Enter the PAR's net child support obligation (Line 29) from the worksheet that deducted the support obligation for the parent's other dependents from the parent's net income (i.e., with the Line 2c child support order for other dependents and Line 2d other dependent deduction). Note: the Line 2d other dependent deduction is calculated on a separate worksheet. [theoretical support obligation for other dependents of either parent (i.e., with the Line 2d other-dependent amount deducted from gross income).]

Line 31 - Line 29 PAR CS Obligation WITHOUT Deductions for Other Dependents [Other Dependent Deduction]

Enter the PAR's net child support obligation (Line 29) from the worksheet that does not deduct the support obligation for other dependents (Line 2c and 2d) from the parent's net income. [a theoretical support obligation for other dependents from the gross income of either parent.]

Line 32 - Adjusted PAR CS Obligation

Add the Line 30 support obligation that includes the deductions for other dependents (Lines 2c and 2d) and the Line 31 support obligation that does not include the deductions for other dependents, the divide the sum by two to obtain the Adjusted Child Support Obligation for the paying parent. [obligation that includes the other dependent deduction (Line 30) and the obligation that does not include the other dependent deduction (Line 31), then divide the sum by two to obtain the Adjusted PAR Child Support Obligation.] Math: $(\text{Line 30} + \text{Line 31}) \div 2$.

COMMENTS ON THE USE OF THE COMBINED TAX TABLES

Appendix IX-H

Limitations of this Table - This table should not be used if either parent: (1) has income from non-wage income that is not subject to the same taxes as wages (such as alimony or Social Security disability - see Appendix IX-B), (2) claims mandatory retirement contributions, or (3) has a married marital status for tax withholding purposes.

Withholding Taxes vs. Year-End Tax Obligations - This table is based on withholding rates. It is meant to provide an estimate of how much after-tax income an individual has available to pay child support at the end of each week. Year-end tax obligations, adjustments, credits, and tax refunds (e.g., earned income credit, filing as head of household, personal deductions for children) are not considered in this table and may result in taxes that differ from the amount withheld by an employer. When applying the support guidelines, withholding taxes and/or net income should be adjusted based on year-end tax obligations after reviewing tax returns if such an adjustment would more accurately reflect net income available to either parent in future years.

Withholding Allowances - For assumptions regarding the number of withholding allowances permitted by an individual, see Appendix IX-B, Line 2a.

Self-Employed Persons - This table gives the withholding tax for employees who are paid wages for their services. It assumes that the employer is paying a portion of the Social Security and Medicare taxes for the employee (7.65%). To estimate the combined tax for self-employed persons earning no more than $2,279 per week ($118,500 per year), multiply gross taxable weekly income by 0.0765 and add the result to the table amount. For persons earning above $2,279 per week, multiply gross taxable weekly income by .0145 (Medicare), add $141 (FICA max), and add the sum to the table amount. IMPORTANT: Although this formula will provide an estimate of self-employment income taxes, a careful review of the most recent personal and business tax returns will provide a more accurate tax figure for self-employed persons. Also, see IRS Pubs 505 and SE and App. IX-B (Determining Income).

Non-Taxable Income - Some forms of income (e.g., Social Security, VA, Worker's Comp) are not subject to state or federal income tax. Such income is added to taxable income after combined withholding taxes are deducted. Do not combine non-taxable income with gross taxable income when using these tables. (See Appendix IX-B - Determining Income).

Alimony Income - Alimony received is subject to federal and state income tax, but not FICA or Medicare tax. If the combined tax tables are used for gross income that includes alimony, deduct the FICA/Medicare tax for the amount of the alimony (0.0765) from the combined withholding tax.

Social Security Tax (FICA) - This table gives the correct amount of combined withholding tax only if wages for income tax and Social Security are the same. The Social Security tax withholding rate for wage earners is 0.062. The maximum amount of FICA tax for one year ($7,347/year or $141/week) is averaged into the table for income ranges above $118,500. Refer to IRS Publication 15 for more information. Note that some forms of income are not subject to FICA and Medicare tax (interest income, rents, dealing in property). These forms of income should be excluded from gross income when estimating a parent's taxes. Also, self-employed persons must pay the full FICA/Medicare tax on 92.35% of their gross income (See IRS Form Schedule SE).

Medicare Tax – This table accounts for Medicare tax and "Additional Medicare Tax." The Medicare tax withholding rate for wage earners is 0.0145 for all incomes. In addition to the 1.45% Medicare tax, there is an Additional Medicare Tax of 0.9% applied to wages in excess of $200,000. The 0.9% Additional Medicare Tax also applies to self-employed persons (there is no employer share of Additional Medicare Tax).

Federal Income Tax - This table includes federal income tax withholding rates as published by the IRS (see Publication 15 (Circular E) For use in 2015, revised December 22, 2014). To determine the amount of federal income tax for incomes greater than those shown in this table, refer to these IRS Publications.

New Jersey Income Tax - This table includes tax withholding rates published by the NJ Division of Taxation (see NJ-WT, effective January 2012). To determine New Jersey withholding tax for incomes greater than those shown on this table, refer to Publication NJ-WT and New Withholding Rate tables.

Note: Appendix IX-H amended [April 21, 2015] July 27, 2015 to be effective [May 1, 2015] September 1, 2015.

GUIDELINES FOR THE COMPENSATION OF MEDIATORS SERVING IN THE CIVIL AND FAMILY ECONOMIC PROGRAMS

These guidelines apply to the compensation that may be charged by all mediators serving in the Statewide Mediation Program for Civil, General Equity, and Probate cases, and, where applicable, to mediators serving in the Family Economic Mediation Program.

1. . . . no change.

2. Time Spent Before Initial Mediation Session: At the beginning of the initial mediation session, the mediator shall disclose to the parties in writing on a form prescribed by the Administrative Director of the Courts the amount of preparation time the mediator has spent to that point on the case. If the amount of preparation time by the mediator exceeds one hour and if the mediator intends to charge the parties for that additional preparation time beyond the one free hour in accordance with Guideline [14] 15 should they agree to continue with mediation on a paying basis, then the mediator in that written disclosure must so advise the parties prior to commencing the initial mediation session. Any such charged additional preparation time will be billed by the mediator at the mediator's market rate as set forth on the court's Mediation Roster.

3. . . . no change.

4. Mediation Involving Mentoring: Mediators who are being mentored may not charge for their time spent involved in the mediation. It is the obligation of the mentor mediator to inform the litigants that the second mediator is not permitted to charge for the mediation.

[4.] 5. Non-Roster Mediators: If the parties select a mediator who is not on the court's rosters, that mediator may negotiate a fee and need not provide the first two hours of service free.

[5.] 6. Cost of Organizational Conference Call: The out-of-pocket cost of the organizational conference call shall be shared equally by the parties, unless expenses have been waived or reallocated in accordance with Guideline [9] 10 below.

[6.] 7. Non-Party Participation: If a non-party is invited to participate in the mediation, which participation must be agreed to by the parties and the mediator, the mediator shall obtain the participating non-party's written consent as to confidentiality and any other matters requested by the parties, as facilitated by the mediator.

[7.] 8. Continuing the Mediation: At the beginning of the initial in-person mediation session, the mediator shall disclose to the parties in writing on a form prescribed by the Administrative Director of the Courts the specific time at which the free mediation will conclude. That written disclosure shall advise the parties that any mediation continued beyond that time will be billed by the mediator at the mediator's market rate as set forth on the court's Mediation Roster. At the expiration of the free first two hours as previously defined, including at least a one hour in-person mediation session, any party may elect not to continue with the mediation, which decision must be immediately communicated orally or in writing to the mediator and all parties. In such situation, despite the fact that one or more parties have opted out of mediation, mediation can continue as to those parties desiring to continue to the extent that the mediation can be meaningful without participation by the party or parties that opted out. Only those parties who continue with the mediation beyond the free hours shall be responsible for payment of the mediator's fee and expenses, as set forth in Guideline [9] 10.

[8.] 9. Newly Added Parties: The free first two hours are not extended by reason of the addition of a new party to the case. If a new party enters the case after the expiration of the two free hours, that party may agree to participate in the mediation on the same terms as the rest of the parties on a fee-sharing basis.

[9.] 10. Allocation of Mediation Fees and Expenses: The parties in interest who participate in mediation beyond the "free hours" component shall share the costs and fees of the mediator (a) equally, (b) as determined by the mediator, or (c) as otherwise agreed, subject to an application to the court for an equitable reallocation of the fees. The mediator shall waive the share of the fee allocable to an indigent party as defined in R. 1:13-2(a).

[10.] 11. Mediator's Expenses: Unless the parties otherwise agree in writing in advance following full disclosure, mediators may not charge for travel costs or time, use or rental of facilities, paralegal expenses, food, photocopying, postage, conference calls or other expenses. Note: The parties are responsible for the costs of the organizational conference call as provided in Guideline [5] 6 above.

[11.] 12. Failure to Appear or Cancel Timely: Parties who previously agreed to continue in mediation and were duly provided with notice of the mediation session but who failed to appear for the mediation session or who cancel the mediation session less than 24 hours in advance are nonetheless responsible for payment of their share of the mediator fees and expenses as allocated pursuant to Guideline [9] 10 above. In the event that a mediation session is canceled because of a party's nonappearance or untimely cancellation, the mediator still may charge a fee; such fee may either be agreed on by the parties in advance or, if not, it shall be the mediator's usual charge for one hour's service and shall be charged to the party who failed to appear or who cancelled untimely.

[12.] 13. Submission of Mediator's Bills: In the absence of other payment arrangements, mediators should bill the parties following each mediation session for which payment is due.

Generally, a mediation session should not begin unless the parties are current in their payments for previous sessions. Counsel have a responsibility to facilitate prompt payment of mediator fees.

[13.] 14. Location of Mediation Sessions: Mediators shall provide space for mediation sessions without charge, unless either the facilities will not accommodate the number of participants or appropriate multiple breakout rooms, or there are other special needs or circumstances. In such event, the parties will be responsible for appropriate facility arrangements for the mediation sessions. Unless the parties agree otherwise, mediation sessions shall be held in neutral facilities and not in the offices of an attorney representing one of the parties. The site of the mediation session shall be in the county of venue or in a contiguous county in reasonable proximity and not more than 40 miles to the parties or to the courthouse of venue, unless all parties consent otherwise.

[14.] 15. Pre-Mediation Submissions and Preparation: Mediators can limit the length of the parties' pre-mediation submissions. If a party exceeds the limitations, the mediator has the discretion not to consider any excess materials unless otherwise agreed between the mediator and parties. The amount of time that the mediator spends in pre-mediation preparation should be reasonable in light of the complexity of the issues and the amount at stake. In a complex case, if the parties agree that it is reasonable that preparation, initial administration and the organizational telephone conference should exceed one hour, they may agree to compensate the mediator for such time in excess of one hour before an in-person mediation session is held.

[15.] 16. Collection of Unpaid Mediator's Bill/Failure to Mediate In Accordance with Order: If a mediator has not been timely paid or a mediator and/or a party has incurred unnecessary costs or expenses because of the failure of a party and/or counsel to participate in the mediation process in accordance with the Order of Referral to Mediation, the mediator and/or party may bring an action to compel payment in the Special Civil Part of the county in which the underlying case was filed.

Appendix XXIX-B [new]

Note: Adopted July 27, 2015 to be effective September 1, 2015.

Introductory Note:

The Supreme Court of New Jersey endorses the use of arbitration and other alternative dispute resolution processes for the resolution of disputes.

Parties and their counsel may use this form to develop an arbitration agreement or consent order for the arbitration of certain family law disputes under the Uniform Arbitration Act, N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-1 et seq., (UAA) and R. 5:1-5(a) of the Rules of Court.

The parties may agree to arbitrate certain family law disputes even if there is no pending family law proceeding in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Family Part.

The provisions of this form are acceptable to establish an enforceable arbitration agreement under the UAA.

This form should not be used for proceedings under the Alternative Procedure for Dispute Resolution Act, N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-1 et seq., (APDRA) because that act has substantial procedural differences from the UAA. A sample APDRA agreement is in Appendix C.

Parties should understand that adding certain clauses may increase the time and cost of arbitration. For example, electing to strictly apply the Rules of Evidence, permitting full discovery under the Rules of Court, requiring a full verbatim transcript of the proceeding where not required by case law, or requiring full findings of fact and conclusions of law where not required by case law, can and likely will significantly increase the duration and costs of arbitration.

The explanatory notes in this form note that:

- Certain provisions are required to assure the enforceability of the arbitration agreement. (See paragraphs 1, 2, and 4.)
- Certain provisions are required in any arbitration agreement for family law disputes involving children, including custody, parenting time or child support issues. (See paragraphs 1, 14, 16 and 17.)
- Certain details of the arbitration process should be agreed upon to avoid later disputes. (See paragraphs 6, 7, 9, 11, 15, 18, 19, 20, 22, and 29)

The remaining provisions are offered for consideration by the parties and their counsel in planning the arbitration proceeding.

AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE
PURSUANT TO THE UNIFORM ARBITRATION ACT, N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-1 et seq.

WHEREAS, the parties, fully aware of their rights to have their case heard by the Superior Court of New Jersey, Family Part, or to have their issues in dispute resolved in arbitration, have agreed to arbitrate pursuant to the Uniform Arbitration Act, N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-1 et seq., (UAA).

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises contained in this agreement, the parties agree as follows:

Knowing Waiver of Certain Rights, Consent to Arbitrate, Scope of Arbitration, Entry of Judgment on the Arbitration Award

1. The parties acknowledge and agree to the following:
 - (A) The parties understand their entitlement to a judicial adjudication of their dispute and are willing to waive that right;
 - (B) The parties are aware of the limited circumstances under which a challenge to the award may be advanced and agree to those limitations;
 - (C) The parties have had sufficient time to consider the implications of their decision to arbitrate; and
 - (D) The parties have entered into this arbitration agreement freely and voluntarily, after due consideration of the consequences of doing so.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 1 contains the language required by Fawzy v. Fawzy, 199 N.J. 456 (2009). It assures that parties to an arbitration agreement involving family law disputes, including custody, parenting time or child support issues, freely and voluntarily agree to arbitrate those disputes.

2. The parties agree to arbitrate certain disputes as provided in this agreement as follows:

☐ (A) All issues that could be raised and adjudicated in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Family Part, including pendente lite issues, except those excluded from arbitration by R. 5:1-5(a) shall be subject to the jurisdiction of and determination by the arbitrator pursuant to the terms and procedures of this agreement.

☐ (B) The parties exclude from arbitration the following issues: (list issues or state “none”) _____.

☐ (C) The parties elect to arbitrate the following issues: (list issues)
_____.

The arbitrator shall determine whether an issue or dispute is within the scope of the arbitrator’s jurisdiction.

Explanatory Note:

The parties are required to state what issues they agree to arbitrate.

Paragraph 2(A) offers the parties the option of a broad scope of issues to be arbitrated.

Paragraph 2(B) is to be used if the parties desire to exclude certain specified issues from arbitration. For example, some issues may be addressed in a separate mediation process or by the court after the disposition of the arbitration.

Paragraph 2(C) may be used to designate specific issues that the parties agree to arbitrate. For example, some issues already may be settled and the arbitration will be limited to the remaining issues.

3. The parties agree that the provisions of this agreement govern the arbitration proceeding if there is a conflict between the UAA and this agreement but only if the conflicting provisions of the UAA may be waived.

Explanatory Note:

The parties may change some provisions of the UAA, and may not change others. See N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-4(c). Paragraph 3 confirms the parties' intent to change only those provisions of the statute that may be changed.

4. Judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 4 is to assure that the arbitration award is enforceable.

5. Neither party shall have the right or power to expand, narrow, amend or revoke this agreement without the consent, in writing, of the other party.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 5 is to make clear to the parties the irrevocability of their agreement to arbitrate.

Appointment of Arbitrator; Location of the Arbitration

6. The parties appoint (names(s)) _____ as the arbitrator(s). If the parties appoint more than one arbitrator, the word “arbitrator” in this agreement shall refer to the panel. The arbitrator has made full disclosures as required by the UAA as detailed in Rider A to this agreement. The parties have made full disclosure of any known facts that a reasonable person would consider likely to affect the impartiality of the arbitrator. The parties waive any objections to the service of the arbitrator.

Explanatory Note:

Disclosures by both the arbitrator and the parties are necessary to assure there is no later objection to the arbitrator based on information known to anyone at the time the arbitrator is selected.

If the parties do not name an arbitrator, or a panel of arbitrators, or do not agree on a process for selecting an arbitrator, the court will need to be involved to appoint an arbitrator under the UAA, N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-11. The appointment of a panel of arbitrators will increase the cost and likely extend the duration of the arbitration proceeding.

7. The arbitrator’s compensation and other expenses of the arbitration proceeding shall be borne by the parties as follows:

☐ (A) Equally;

☐ (B) In the following proportion: (state percentages borne by each party)

_____.

8. In any interim or final award, the arbitrator ☐ (A) may ☐ (B) may not reallocate the parties’ percentage contribution to the arbitrator’s compensation and other expenses of the arbitration proceeding.

9. Unless otherwise agreed, ordered, or awarded, the parties shall be responsible for paying their own attorney’s fees and expenses.

10. In any interim or final award, the arbitrator ☐ (A) may ☐ (B) may not award reasonable attorney's fees and other reasonable expenses of arbitration.

Explanatory Note:

Parties should agree on certain details of the arbitration process, such as the allocation of the responsibility for arbitrator compensation, including the source of payment, to avoid later disputes about those details.

Paragraphs 8 and 10 confirm what the statute provides (N.J.S.A. 2A:23B-21(b) and (d)) and offer the parties the option to bar the arbitrator from reallocating arbitrator compensation and other expenses or from awarding attorney's fees and costs.

11. The arbitration shall be conducted at (designate place) _____, or such other location as the parties agree or as selected by the arbitrator.

Explanatory Note:

Parties should agree on certain details of the arbitration process to avoid later disputes about those details.

12. The parties confirm the following role or roles for the arbitrator:

☐ (A) The arbitrator has not served, and shall not serve, in another capacity in the matter being arbitrated. In particular, the arbitrator has not served, and shall not serve in the dual capacity as mediator, settlement facilitator, parenting coordinator, or guardian ad litem; or

☐ (B) The parties shall participate in a mediation process before or during the arbitration proceeding with an independent mediator who is not serving, and shall not serve, as arbitrator for the parties; or

☐ (C) The parties may jointly ask the arbitrator at any time during the course of the arbitration proceeding to serve also as a settlement facilitator, during which time the arbitrator shall meet with the parties and their representatives all together, at the same time, and discuss with them various options for resolution of their disputes.

☐ (D) The parties may jointly ask the arbitrator at any time during the course of the arbitration proceeding to serve also as a mediator, during which time the arbitrator may meet with the parties and their representatives all together, at the same time, or in caucus, or in any other manner that a mediator would employ, and discuss with them various options for resolution of their disputes. By electing this option, paragraph 12(D), the parties also incorporate by reference all of paragraph 13 below.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraphs 12(A), (B) and (C) define the role the parties expect of the arbitrator. Each of these paragraphs is intended to avoid the problem that arises if, during the course of the arbitration proceeding, the parties ask the arbitrator to assist in settlement discussions as mediator and the arbitrator conducts private meetings with one party and then the other. While that is permissible, it would not then be permissible for the arbitrator, after unsuccessfully mediating the disputes, to resume the role of arbitrator and to decide disputed issues unless the parties have elected paragraph 12 (D).

Otherwise, such dual roles may result in arbitration awards being vacated and the parties being required to start the arbitration process again before a new arbitrator.

Paragraph 13 is required if the parties elect paragraph 12(D) above where the arbitrator will serve in the dual roles of arbitrator and mediator at any time and in any order during the process. It makes clear the risks inherent in having an arbitrator assume the role of mediator and then resume the role of arbitrator. Failure to object to the mediator resuming the role of arbitrator is deemed a waiver of the right to object.

Further, the dual role of arbitrator and guardian ad litem is not permitted. Fawzy v. Fawzy, 199 N.J. 456 (2009).

13. The parties acknowledge that the law does not favor an arbitrator also serving in the role of mediator in the same proceeding unless the parties are advised of the benefits and risks and expressly agree in writing to such a process. The parties have been advised of the holding in Minkowitz v. Israeli, 433 N.J. Super. 111 (App. Div. 2013). That case addressed some of the issues that arise when one person acts in the dual capacities of arbitrator and mediator and concluded that dual roles are to be avoided unless the parties consent in writing.

Issues include:

(a) The mediator meets separately with the parties and their counsel and learns information that in mediation is both confidential and privileged and that the mediator is required under section 7 of the Uniform Mediation Act, N.J.S.A. 2A: 23C-7, (UMA) not to disclose to the other party without the consent of the disclosing party;

(b) If the arbitrator is required by the parties to disclose such confidential and privileged information to the other party, the willingness of the parties to engage in a meaningful exchange of private confidential information during the mediation process is likely to be compromised, thereby making the mediation process itself less likely to be effective in resolving the disputes because successful mediation depends on confidentiality;

(c) The party to whom the arbitrator is required to disclose such confidential and privileged information can never be completely sure that he/she received a complete and accurate report of the information conveyed between the other party and the arbitrator during the confidential mediation process;

(d) Such confidential and privileged information is inadmissible in another proceeding (see UMA, N.J.S.A. 2A: 23C-4(c) and 7(c)), including the proceeding before the arbitrator;

(e) Such inadmissible, confidential and privileged information is likely to influence the decision of the arbitrator if the mediation is unsuccessful and the arbitrator is then called on to decide the disputed issues;

(f) These issues can lead to grounds for vacating an arbitration award and would require the parties to engage in a second arbitration before a different arbitrator.

Notwithstanding these issues, the parties have been advised that they may consent in writing to the arbitrator acting as mediator and then resuming the role of arbitrator. The parties intend this agreement to constitute such consent in writing.

Therefore, each party hereby consents to the arbitrator acting as a mediator for any issues (or only for certain issues) identified in writing by the parties.

Each of the parties waives all claims of confidentiality and privilege under the UMA and the common law for all communications, including private ex parte and otherwise confidential and privileged communications that the parties may have with the arbitrator while the arbitrator is serving as mediator.

The parties instruct the arbitrator to waive the mediator privilege under the UMA. Upon beginning or resuming the arbitration, the parties consent to and instruct the arbitrator to disclose fully and completely to the other party all otherwise confidential and privileged communications that the parties had with the arbitrator while the arbitrator was serving as mediator.

The parties waive any objection to the arbitrator considering as admissible evidence any confidential or privileged information received from the other party. Upon beginning or resuming the arbitration, the parties shall require the arbitrator to put all confidential and privileged information on the record, insofar as the issues in the proceeding relate to custody and parenting time.

The arbitrator may also serve as mediator at any time during the proceeding in any order and may thereafter resume the role of arbitrator, free of any objection from either party.

The parties acknowledge that the arbitrator is not exceeding the arbitrator's authority by acting as mediator and then resuming the role of arbitrator.

If a party proceeds with the next arbitration hearing without an objection to the arbitrator resuming the role of arbitrator, the party will be held to have waived any right to object.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 13 is optional unless the parties selected paragraph 12(D), in which case paragraph 13 is required. It makes clear the risks inherent in having an arbitrator assume the role of mediator and then resume the role of arbitrator. Failure to object to the mediator resuming the role of arbitrator is deemed a waiver of the right to object.

Required Record Keeping

14. In any arbitration proceeding involving custody or parenting time issues, the parties shall have a record made of the arbitration proceeding as to those issues. Such record shall include: (i) a record of all documentary evidence; and (ii) all testimony shall be recorded verbatim. A record of testimony may be made by one of the following: (i) certified shorthand reporter; (ii) electronic recording; or (iii) audio or video recording. Absent agreement of the parties, the arbitrator shall decide the proper allocation of the costs of the record.

15. In any arbitration proceeding that does not involve custody or parenting time issues, the parties:

- ☐ (A) Shall not require a record to be kept of the arbitration proceeding; or
- ☐ (B) Shall require a record to be kept of the arbitration proceeding relating to certain issues as follows: (list issues) _____; or
- ☐ (C) Shall require a record to be kept of the entire arbitration proceeding.

Explanatory Note:

The parties may choose whether or not to have a record made of the arbitration proceeding as noted in the optional parts (A), (B) and (C) of paragraph 15. The parties may consider having a verbatim record made in all child support cases in which a deviation from the guidelines is sought to assure that the court may properly review the arbitrator's award. Requiring a formal record to be kept, depending on the nature of the record, may increase the cost of the arbitration.

16. All documentary evidence introduced at the hearing shall be maintained by the arbitrator until the issuance of the award and the parties shall either keep a copy of all such evidence or obtain the evidence from the arbitrator after issuance of the award and retain it until the expiration of the time for the filing of any appeal from an order or judgment confirming, vacating or modifying the award, or from the expiration of the time to apply for an order or judgment to vacate or modify the award.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraphs 14 and 16 are required in any arbitration agreement involving custody or parenting time issues. This assures that the court may properly review any resulting arbitration award if there is an appropriate objection to it. See, Fawzy v. Fawzy, 199 N.J. 456 (2009).

Required Findings; Form of Award

17. In any proceeding involving custody, parenting time or child support issues, the parties shall require the arbitrator to make findings of fact and conclusions of law with respect to child-custody, parenting-time, or child support issues. As to those issues, the arbitrator shall state in writing or otherwise record findings of fact and conclusions of law with a focus on the best-interests standard.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 17 is required in any arbitration agreement in which issues involving children, including custody, parenting time or child support issues, will be addressed. This assures that the court may properly review any resulting arbitration award if there is an appropriate objection to it. See, Fawzy v. Fawzy, 199 N.J. 456 (2009).

18. In any arbitration proceeding that does not involve custody, parenting time or child support issues, the parties:

☐ (A) Shall require the arbitrator to prepare an award stating no reasons; or

☐ (B) Shall require the arbitrator to prepare an award briefly stating the reasons for the decision of the arbitrator; or

☐ (C) Shall require the arbitrator to prepare an award stating findings of fact and conclusions of law.

Explanatory Note:

Absent agreement of the parties or requirements under the law, the arbitrator will decide the form of the award. If the parties desire an explanation of the award because of the particular issues involved, they may select option (B). If the parties want to expand the scope of judicial review under N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B – 4(c), they should consider selecting option (C). However, if the parties decide to ask the arbitrator to state the reasons for the award or to make findings of fact and conclusions of law, it may increase the cost of the arbitration.

Law to Be Applied

19. This agreement shall be interpreted according to the laws of the State of New Jersey.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 19 gives guidance to the arbitrator about what rules of construction are to be used in interpreting the agreement (i.e., New Jersey law).

20. In all cases involving custody, parenting time, or child support issues, the arbitrator shall be bound to apply the substantive laws and remedies of the State of New Jersey. All other issues in this arbitration shall be determined by:

☐ (A) The substantive laws and remedies of the State of New Jersey or the State of (identify governing law) _____ which the arbitrator shall be bound to apply; or

☐ (B) The substantive law of the State of New Jersey or the State of (identify governing law) _____, but the arbitrator may award such remedies as the arbitrator considers just and appropriate under the circumstances. The fact that such a remedy could not or would not be granted by the court is not a ground for refusing to confirm an award or for vacating an award.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 20 gives guidance as to which law to apply to the particular issues in dispute. The parties may require the arbitrator to be bound to apply the substantive law and remedies as stated in Paragraph 20(A). Alternatively, Paragraph 20 (B) allows the parties to select the substantive law and grant the arbitrator broad discretion in fashioning remedies that may be outside of the remedies available under the substantive law. For example, the parties may ask the arbitrator to award a lump sum of alimony.

See also paragraph 10, offering the parties the option to limit the arbitrator's authority to reallocate or award attorney's fees and expenses.

21. The arbitration shall be conducted pursuant to rules of procedure as determined in the discretion of the arbitrator, consistent with this agreement and the applicable statute.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 21 confirms what the statute provides under N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-15. The parties remain free to choose another set of procedural rules to govern the arbitration process.

Confidentiality

22. Except as may be required by law, the parties and the arbitrator shall keep the existence, content (including all testimony and documentary evidence presented) and the results of the arbitration proceeding confidential. Neither the parties nor the arbitrator may disclose the existence, content, or results of any arbitration under this agreement without the prior written consent of the parties.

Explanatory Note:

The arbitrator must keep confidential the arbitrator's knowledge of the arbitration proceeding. However, the parties are not required to keep anything about the arbitration proceeding confidential unless they agree to do so. An important reason some parties agree to arbitrate is to maintain certain information as confidential and this optional paragraph 22 provides that.

Discovery and Rules of Evidence

23. The parties agree that the following discovery procedures shall apply to the arbitration proceeding:

- ☐ (A) Such discovery as the arbitrator determines appropriate under the UAA; or
- ☐ (B) Discovery conducted in accordance with the New Jersey Rules of Court; or
- ☐ (C) Limited discovery as follows: (specify the agreed discovery) _____; or
- ☐ (D) No discovery.

Explanatory Note:

The parties have various options ranging from full discovery under the Rules of Court to no discovery at all.

The parties may choose paragraph 23(A), which confirms that the scope of discovery is left to the discretion of the arbitrator as provided under N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-17.

The parties may also choose to do expansive discovery such as that under the New Jersey Rules of Court as provided in paragraph 23(B). However, one of the advantages of arbitration is the limited and expedited scope of discovery. Choosing paragraph 23(B) will substantially increase the cost of the arbitration proceeding, and may not be necessary to a full and fair presentation of the issues to the arbitrator.

The parties may choose paragraph 23(C) to specify what discovery is needed (e.g., disclosure of closely-held business records).

The parties may choose paragraph 23(D) for no discovery if the issue to be arbitrated is one where no discovery is necessary and all information to be presented to the arbitrator is already in the hands of the parties or if the parties choose to save legal costs of formal discovery requests and responses by agreeing to work cooperatively to exchange necessary information.

24. The parties agree that the following shall govern the admissibility of evidence in the arbitration proceeding:

- ☐ (A) Such evidence shall be admitted in the discretion of the arbitrator pursuant to the UAA; or

☐ (B) The New Jersey Rules of Evidence shall apply; or

☐ (C) The (specify source of other rules) _____ Rules of Evidence shall apply.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, all statutes and common law rules relating to privilege shall remain in effect.

Explanatory Note:

The parties may choose paragraph 24(A), which confirms that absent agreement of the parties, the admissibility of evidence is left to the discretion of the arbitrator, who is not bound to apply any rules of evidence. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-15(a).

The parties may choose paragraphs (B) or (C) to designate particular rules of evidence. However, applying any rules of evidence may require the services of a lawyer as the arbitrator, whereas an accountant or social services professional may be the more suitable selection as arbitrator, depending on the issues to be arbitrated. Also, applying rules of evidence in the arbitration hearing may increase the time and expense of the arbitration hearing.

Arbitration Proceedings and Witnesses/Experts

25. The arbitrator may hold conferences with the parties. The arbitrator may require the attendance of any person as a witness and the production of any book or written instrument or document. The fees for the attendance of the witness shall be those allowed witnesses in a civil action. Subpoenas shall issue in the name of and be signed by the arbitrator, and shall be directed to the person therein named and served in accordance with R. 1:9-3 of the Rules of Court. Parties may enforce subpoenas as provided by the UAA.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 25 confirms what the statute provides. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-15(a) and 17(g).

26. If the arbitrator is of the opinion that evidence by impartial expert(s) would be of assistance, the arbitrator may direct that expert evidence be obtained. The fees and expenses of expert witnesses shall be paid by the parties as directed by the arbitrator. The parties remain free to retain their own experts to challenge the report(s) of the impartial expert(s) and to cross-examine the impartial expert(s).

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 26 assures that the arbitrator may direct that expert evidence be obtained and confirms the right of the parties to retain their own expert(s) and to cross-examine the impartial expert(s).

Pendente Lite (Interim) Relief

27. Any determination reached before a final award shall be considered pendente lite (interim) relief.

28. Any party may seek pendente lite (interim) relief from the arbitrator, to the same extent as such relief could be requested in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Family Part. Any party may request that the ruling be incorporated into an award. Any party may then ask the court to confirm, enforce, modify, correct, or vacate the award in accordance with R. 5:3-8(a) or (b).

29. The arbitration proceeding shall not be abated, stayed or delayed by the court's review or enforcement of a pendente lite (interim) award unless the arbitrator or the court so determines.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 28 confirms what the statute provides. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-18.

Paragraph 29 provides that a motion/application to the court to address a pendente lite (interim) award does not affect the ongoing arbitration proceeding on other issues.

Final Determination

30. An award shall be made within (state number) ____ days following the close of evidence or submission of summations, whichever is later. The arbitrator, with the consent of the parties, may extend the time for making the award.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 30 is desirable to assure a timely completion of the award by the arbitrator. A 30-day time limit, or slightly longer, is typical.

Post-Award Review, Modification or Correction of the Arbitration Award by the Arbitrator

31. On application to the arbitrator by a party to the arbitration proceeding, the arbitrator may modify or correct the award:

(1) If there was an evident mathematical miscalculation or an evident mistake in the description of a person, thing, or property referred to in the award;

(2) If the award is imperfect in a matter of form not affecting the merits of the decision on the claims submitted; or

(3) If the arbitrator has not made a final and definite award upon a claim submitted by the parties to the arbitration proceeding; or

(4) To clarify the award.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 31 confirms what the statute provides. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-20 and 24 (a)(1) and (3). The parties may include this paragraph in their agreement if the parties want to incorporate, for reference, the standards for when an arbitrator may be asked to review the award but they may not vary these four standards governing the arbitrator's review. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-4(c).

32. An application shall be made and notice given to all parties within 20 days after the aggrieved party receives notice of the award. Objection to the application and notice to all parties shall be made within 10 days of receipt of the application. Any reply shall be made and notice given to all parties within 7 days. The arbitrator shall render a decision within 30 days following receipt of the reply or the time for filing an objection or a reply has expired, whichever first occurs.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 32 confirms what the statute provides about the timing of an application to the arbitrator and the opposition. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-20. This paragraph further provides for the option of a reply.

33. There shall be no further jurisdiction of the arbitrator to consider any further applications of the parties, absent written consent of the parties to expand the scope of the arbitration.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 33 confirms that the arbitrator's authority ends completely upon the issuance of a final award and the expiration of the short time within which to seek modification or clarification of the award from the arbitrator. However, the parties, in writing, may expand the scope of the arbitrator's jurisdiction. Such expansion may include agreement that the arbitrator may continue to exercise jurisdiction over issues beyond those addressed in the final award.

34. The parties agree that the arbitrator has jurisdiction after the issuance of any award in order to be able to reconsider the award based upon mistake of fact or mistake of law or any factor set forth in R. 4:49-2 or R. 4:50-1 of the Rules of Court. Any reconsideration application under this paragraph shall be made and notice given to all parties within 20 days of receipt of the award. Objection to the reconsideration application and notice to all parties shall be made within 10 days of receipt of the application. Any reply shall be made and notice given to all parties within 7 days. The arbitrator shall render a decision within 30 days following receipt of the reply or the time for filing an objection or a reply has expired, whichever first occurs.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 34 expands the arbitrator's jurisdiction beyond that in paragraph 31 and allows a short, 20-day continuation of the jurisdiction of the arbitrator in order to hear applications to change the award on various grounds beyond the limited grounds described in the statute. Continuing the jurisdiction of the arbitrator may increase the cost of the arbitration process.

Confirmation of the Arbitration Award

35. After a party to the arbitration proceeding receives notice of an award, the party may apply under R. 5:3-8 to the Superior Court or New Jersey, Family Part for an order confirming the award. The court shall issue a confirming order unless the arbitration award is modified, corrected or vacated.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 35 confirms what the statute provides. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-22. The procedure for confirming the award may not be changed by the parties. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-4(c).

Modification or Correction of the Arbitration Award by the Court

36. On motion/application to the court by a party to the arbitration proceeding within 120 days after the party receives notice of the award or of a modified or corrected award, the court shall modify or correct the award if:

(1) There was an evident mathematical miscalculation or an evident mistake in the description of a person, thing or property referred to in the award;

(2) The arbitrator made an award on a claim not submitted to the arbitrator and the award may be corrected without affecting the merits of the decision upon the claims submitted; or

(3) The award is imperfect in a matter of form not affecting the merits of the decision on the claims submitted.

If the motion/application is granted, the court shall modify or correct and confirm the award as modified or corrected, unless a motion/application to vacate the award is pending.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 36 confirms what the statute provides. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-24. The parties may include this paragraph in their agreement if the parties want to incorporate, for reference, the standards for when a court may be asked to modify or correct the award but they may not vary these three standards governing the court's review. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-4(c).

Vacating an Arbitration Award

37. A party to the arbitration proceeding may apply to the court to vacate the award within 120 days after receiving notice of the award or the modified or corrected award, unless the aggrieved party alleges that the award was procured by corruption, fraud or other undue means, in which case the application to the court shall be made within 120 days after the ground is known or by the exercise of reasonable care would have been known by the aggrieved party. Upon filing of such application, the court shall vacate an award made in the arbitration proceeding if:

(1) The award was procured by corruption, fraud, or other undue means;

(2) The court finds evident partiality by an arbitrator, corruption by an arbitrator, or misconduct by an arbitrator prejudicing the rights of a party to the arbitration proceeding;

(3) The arbitrator refused to postpone the hearing upon showing of sufficient cause for postponement, refused to consider evidence material to the controversy, or otherwise conducted the hearing in a manner so as to substantially prejudice the rights of a party to the arbitration proceeding;

(4) The arbitrator exceeded the arbitrator's powers;

(5) There was no agreement to arbitrate, unless the person participated in the arbitration proceeding without raising the objection not later than the beginning of the arbitration hearing;

(6) The arbitration was conducted without proper notice of the initiation of the arbitration so as to substantially prejudice the rights of a party to the arbitration proceeding;

(7) The award, pertaining to the issues of custody, parenting time or child support:

a. Does not contain detailed findings of fact and conclusions of law; or

b. Is not in compliance with the provisions of R. 5:1-5 of the Rules of

Court; or

c. There is evidential support that establishes a prima facie claim of harm to the child.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 37 confirms what the statute provides. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-23.

Part 7 of Paragraph 37 includes the standards for the court to use to review an award involving issues affecting children, including custody, parenting time and child support. These provisions are consistent with provisions required in an arbitration agreement involving such issues (see paragraphs 14, 16, and 17 above.)

The parties may include this paragraph in their agreement if the parties want to reference the standards for when a court may be asked to vacate the award but they may not vary these standards. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-4(c).

However, the parties may expand the scope of judicial review under that section of the UAA. See sample paragraph 38 below.

Expanding the Scope of Judicial Review

38. The parties agree to expand the scope of review by the Superior Court of New Jersey, Family Part under the UAA to require the court to review any award on the following standards:

- ☐ (A) Errors of law; or
- ☐ (B) Substantial evidence; or
- ☐ (C) Abuse of discretion; or
- ☐ (D) Such other standard as the parties may agree: (state a standard of review)

_____.

Explanatory Note:

N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-4(c) provides the parties the option of expanding the scope of judicial review of an arbitration award according to standards they define. Based on such an agreement, the court may modify, correct or vacate the award using the agreed standard. However, such review may require that a record be made of all testimony in order to permit such review by the court, and that may substantially increase the cost of the arbitration and adversely affect the finality of the arbitration award. Expanding the scope of judicial review can also adversely impact the confidentiality of the arbitration proceeding itself because of the need to file the record of the arbitration proceeding with the court. However, note that the parties may not confer jurisdiction on the Appellate Division to review errors of law or fact.

Other Review

39. The parties agree to permit an appeal of the final award to a panel of one or more private appellate arbitrators to be agreed upon by the parties or provided by a third party, such as the American Arbitration Association. Such appeal shall be filed within 30 days of receipt of the final or corrected, modified award. The parties agree that the standard of review shall be as follows: (state a standard of review) _____. If an appeal is filed, the award shall not be deemed final for purposes of confirmation pending the appeal. The appellate panel may adopt the original award, modify the original award or substitute its own award. The decision of the appellate panel shall be final and binding and judgment may be entered by any court having jurisdiction thereof. The appellate panel shall consist of:

- ☐ (A) One arbitrator;
- ☐ (B) A panel of arbitrators; or
- ☐ (C) The following arbitrator(s): (name(s)) _____.

Explanatory Note:

Various third party arbitration provider organizations, including the American Arbitration Association, offer parties the option, under a set of appellate rules, to take an appeal to a panel of arbitrators of an arbitration award issued by another arbitrator. Parties may want to consider this option if they desire to have an appeal from an award rather than being limited to the statutory grounds for vacating an award but, for confidentiality reasons or otherwise, do not desire to provide for review by the court or expanded review by the court under paragraphs 37 and 38 above.

Appendix XXIX-C [new]

Note: Adopted July 27, 2015 to be effective September 1, 2015.

Introductory Note:

The Supreme Court of New Jersey endorses the use of arbitration and other alternative dispute resolution processes for the resolution of disputes.

Parties and their counsel may use this form to develop an agreement or consent order for the resolution of certain family law disputes in a proceeding under the New Jersey Alternative Procedure for Dispute Resolution Act, N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-1 to 19, (APDRA) and R. 5:1-5(a) of the Rules of Court. (Please note that N.J.S.A. 2A:23A-20 to 30 do not apply.)

The parties may agree to an alternative procedure for the resolution of certain family law disputes even if there is no pending family law proceeding in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Family Part.

The provisions of this form are acceptable to establish an enforceable agreement under the APDRA.

This form should not be used for proceedings under the Uniform Arbitration Act, N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-1 et seq., (UAA) because that act has substantial procedural differences from the APDRA. A sample UAA agreement is in Appendix B.

Parties should understand that adding certain clauses may increase the time and cost of the proceeding. For example, electing to strictly apply the Rules of Evidence, permitting full discovery under the Rules of Court, requiring a full verbatim transcript of the proceeding where not required by case law, can, and likely will, significantly increase the duration and costs of the proceeding.

The explanatory notes in this form note that:

- Certain provisions are required to assure the enforceability of the agreement. (See paragraphs 1, 2 and 4.)
- Certain provisions are required in any agreement for an alternate proceeding for the resolution of family law disputes involving children, including custody, parenting time or child support issues. (See paragraphs 1, 14, 16 and 17.)
- Certain details of the process should be agreed upon to avoid later disputes. (See paragraphs 6, 7, 9, 11, 15, 18, 19, 20, 22 and 29.)

The remaining provisions are offered for consideration by the parties and their counsel in planning the alternate dispute resolution proceeding.

AGREEMENT TO RESOLVE DISPUTES PURSUANT TO THE NEW JERSEY
ALTERNATIVE PROCEDURE FOR DISPUTE RESOLUTION ACT,
N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-1 et seq.

WHEREAS, the parties, fully aware of their rights to have their case heard by the Superior Court of New Jersey, Family Part, or to have their issues in dispute resolved in an alternative procedure, have agreed to resolve their disputes pursuant to the New Jersey Alternative Procedure for Dispute Resolution Act, N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-1 et seq., (APDRA).

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises contained in this agreement, the parties agree as follows:

Knowing Waiver of Certain Rights, Consent to Alternative Procedure, Scope of the Proceeding, Entry of Judgment on the Award

1. The parties acknowledge and agree to the following:

(A) The parties understand their entitlement to a judicial adjudication of their dispute and are willing to waive that right;

(B) The parties are aware of the limited circumstances under which a challenge to the award may be advanced and agree to those limitations;

(C) The parties have had sufficient time to consider the implications of their decision to agree to the alternative procedure; and

(D) The parties have entered into this agreement freely and voluntarily, after due consideration of the consequences of doing so.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 1 contains the language required by Fawzy v. Fawzy, 199 N.J. 456 (2009). It assures that parties to an agreement for an alternative procedure for dispute resolution involving family law disputes, including custody, parenting time or child support issues, freely and voluntarily agree to the alternative procedure for resolving those disputes.

2. The parties agree to submit certain disputes for resolution in a proceeding by an umpire under the APDRA as follows:

☐ (A) All issues that could be raised and adjudicated in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Family Part, except those excluded from such a proceeding by R. 5:1-5(a), including pendente lite issues, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of and determination by the umpire pursuant to the terms and procedures of this agreement. The umpire shall determine whether an issue or dispute is within the scope of the umpire's jurisdiction.

☐ (B) The parties exclude from the proceeding the following issues: (list issues or state "none") _____.

☐ (C) The parties elect to submit the following issues to the umpire for resolution: (list issues) _____.

The umpire shall determine whether an issue or dispute is within the scope of the umpire's jurisdiction.

Explanatory Note:

The parties are required to state what issues they agree to submit to the proceeding.

Paragraph 2(A) offers the parties the option of a broad scope of issues to be submitted.

Paragraph 2(B) is to be used if the parties desire to exclude certain specified issues from the proceeding. For example, some issues may be addressed in a separate mediation process or by the court after the disposition of the arbitration.

Paragraph 2(C) may be used to designate specific issues that the parties agree to submit to the proceeding. For example, some issues already may be settled and the proceeding will be limited to the remaining issues.

3. The parties agree that the provisions of this agreement govern the proceeding if there is a conflict between the APDRA and this agreement but only if the conflicting provisions of the APDRA may be waived.

Explanatory Note:

The parties may change some provisions of the APDRA, and may not change others. Paragraph 3 confirms the parties' intent to change only those provisions of the statute that may be changed.

4. Judgment on the award rendered by the umpire may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 4 is to assure that the award is enforceable.

5. Neither party shall have the right or power to expand, narrow, amend or revoke this agreement without the consent in writing of the other party.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 5 is to make clear to the parties the irrevocability of their agreement.

Appointment of Umpire; Location of the Proceeding

6. The parties appoint (name(s)) _____ as the umpire. If the parties appoint more than one umpire, the word “umpire” in this agreement shall refer to the panel. The umpire has made full disclosures as required by the APDRA as detailed within Rider A to this agreement. The parties have made full disclosure of any known facts that a reasonable person would consider likely to affect the impartiality of the umpire. The parties waive any objections to the service of the umpire.

Explanatory Note:

Disclosures by both the umpire and the parties are necessary to assure there is no later objection to the umpire based on information known to anyone at the time the umpire is selected.

If the parties do not name an umpire, or a panel of umpires, or do not agree on a process for selecting an umpire, the court will need to be involved to appoint an umpire under the APDRA, N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-9(a). The appointment of a panel of umpires will increase the cost and likely extend the duration of the proceeding.

7. The umpire’s compensation and other expenses of the proceeding shall be borne by the parties as follows:

☐ (A) Equally;

☐ (B) In the following proportion: (state percentages borne by each party)

_____.

8. In any interim or final award, the umpire ☐ (A) may ☐ (B) may not reallocate the parties’ percentage contribution to the umpire’s compensation and other expenses of the proceeding.

9. Unless otherwise agreed, ordered, or awarded, the parties shall be responsible for paying their own attorney’s fees and expenses.

10. In any interim or final award, the umpire ☐ (A) may ☐ (B) may not award reasonable attorney's fees and other reasonable expenses of the proceeding.

Explanatory Note:

Parties should agree on certain details of the process, such as the allocation of the responsibility for umpire compensation, including the source of payment, to avoid later disputes about those details.

Paragraphs 8 and 10 confirm what the statute provides (N.J.S.A. 2A:23A-17 and 23) and offers the parties the option to bar the umpire from reallocating umpire compensation and other expenses or from awarding attorney's fees and costs.

11. The proceeding shall be conducted at (designate place) _____, or such other location as the parties agree or as selected by the umpire.

Explanatory Note:

Parties should agree on certain details of the process to avoid later disputes about those details.

12. The parties confirm the following role or roles for the umpire:

☐ (A) The umpire has not served, and shall not serve, in another capacity in the proceeding, in particular, the umpire has not served, and shall not serve in the dual capacity as mediator, settlement facilitator, parenting coordinator, or guardian ad litem; or

☐ (B) The parties shall participate in a mediation process before or during the proceeding with an independent mediator who is not serving, and shall not serve, as umpire for the parties; or

☐ (C) The parties may jointly ask the umpire at any time during the course of the proceeding to serve also as a settlement facilitator, during which time the umpire shall meet with the parties and their representatives all together, at the same time, and discuss with them various options for resolution of their disputes.

☐ (D) The parties may jointly ask the umpire at any time during the course of the proceeding to serve also as a mediator, during which time the umpire may meet with the parties and their representatives all together, at the same time, or in caucus or in any other manner that a mediator would employ, and discuss with them various options for resolution of their disputes. By electing this option, paragraph 12(D), the parties also incorporate by reference all of paragraph 13 below.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraphs 12(A), (B) and (C) define the role the parties expect of the umpire. It is intended to avoid the problem that arises if, during the course of the proceeding, the parties ask the umpire to assist in settlement discussions as mediator and the umpire conducts private meetings with one party and then the other. While that is permissible, it would not then be permissible for the umpire, after unsuccessfully mediating the disputes, to resume the role of umpire and to decide disputed issues unless the parties have elected paragraph 12 (D) .

Otherwise, such dual roles may result in awards being vacated and the parties being required to start the process again before a new neutral.

Paragraph 13 is required if the parties elect paragraph 12(D) above where the umpire will serve in the dual roles of umpire and mediator at any time and in any order during the process. It makes clear the risks inherent in having an umpire assume the role of mediator and then resume the role of umpire. Failure to object to the mediator resuming the role of umpire is deemed a waiver of the right to object.

Further, the dual role of umpire and guardian ad litem is not permitted. See, Fawzy v. Fawzy, 199 N.J. 456 (2009).

13. The parties acknowledge that the law does not favor an umpire also serving in the role of mediator in the same proceeding unless the parties are advised of the benefits and risks and expressly agree in writing to such a process. The parties have been advised of the holding in Minkowitz v. Israeli, 433 N.J. Super. 111 (App. Div. 2013). That case addressed some of the issues that arise when one person acts in the dual capacities of arbitrator (or umpire) and mediator and concluded that dual roles are to be avoided unless the parties consent in writing.

Issues include:

(a) The mediator meets separately with the parties and their counsel and learns information that in mediation is both confidential and privileged and that the mediator is required under section 7 of the Uniform Mediation Act, N.J.S.A. 2A: 23C-7, (UMA) not to disclose to the other party without the consent of the disclosing party;

(b) If the umpire is required by the parties to disclose such confidential and privileged information to the other party, the willingness of the parties to engage in a meaningful exchange of private confidential information during the mediation process is likely to be compromised, thereby making the mediation process itself less likely to be effective in resolving the disputes because successful mediation depends on confidentiality;

(c) The party to whom the umpire is required to disclose such confidential and privileged information can never be completely sure that they received a complete and accurate report of the information conveyed between the other party and the umpire during the confidential mediation process;

(d) Such confidential and privileged information is inadmissible in another proceeding (see UMA, N.J.S.A. 2A: 23C-4(c) and 7(c)), including the proceeding before the umpire;

(e) Such inadmissible, confidential and privileged information is likely to influence the decision of the umpire if the mediation is unsuccessful and the umpire is then called on to decide the disputed issues;

(f) These issues can lead to grounds for vacating an award and would require the parties to engage in a second proceeding before a different umpire.

Notwithstanding these issues, the parties have been advised that they may consent in writing to the umpire acting as mediator and then resuming the role of umpire. The parties intend this agreement to constitute such consent in writing.

Therefore, each party hereby consents to the umpire acting as a mediator for any issues (or only for certain issues) identified in writing by the parties.

Each of the parties waives all claims of confidentiality and privilege under the UMA and the common law for all communications, including private ex parte and otherwise confidential and privileged communications that the parties may have with the umpire while the umpire is serving as mediator.

The parties instruct the umpire to waive the mediator privilege under the UMA. Upon beginning or resuming the proceeding, the parties consent to and instruct the umpire to disclose fully and completely to the other party all otherwise confidential and privileged communications between the parties and the umpire while serving as mediator.

The parties waive any objection to the umpire considering as admissible evidence any confidential or privileged information received from the other party. Upon beginning or resuming the proceeding, the parties shall require the umpire to put all confidential and privileged information on the record, insofar as the issues in the proceeding relate to custody and parenting time.

The umpire may also serve as mediator at any time during the proceeding in any order and may thereafter resume the role of umpire, free of any objection from any party.

The parties acknowledge that the umpire is not exceeding the umpire's authority by acting as mediator and then resuming the role of umpire.

If a party proceeds with the next hearing in the proceeding without an objection to the umpire resuming the role of umpire, the party will be held to have waived any right to object.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 13 is optional unless the parties selected paragraph 12(D), in which case Paragraph 13 is required. It makes clear the risks inherent in having an umpire assume the role of mediator and then resume the role of umpire. Failure to object to the umpire resuming the role of umpire is deemed a waiver of the right to object.

Required Record Keeping

14. In any proceeding involving custody or parenting time issues, the parties shall have a record made of the proceeding as to those issues. Such record shall include: (i) a record of all documentary evidence; and (ii) all testimony shall be recorded verbatim. A record of testimony may be made by one of the following: (i) certified shorthand reporter; (ii) electronic recording; or (iii) audio or video recording. Absent agreement of the parties, the umpire shall decide the proper allocation of the costs of the record.

15. In any proceeding that does not involve custody or parenting time issues, the parties:

- ☐ (A) Shall not require a record to be kept of the proceeding; or
- ☐ (B) Shall require a record to be kept of the proceeding relating to certain issues as follows: (list issues) _____; or
- ☐ (C) Shall require a record to be kept of the entire proceeding.

Explanatory Note:

The parties may choose whether or not to have a record made of the proceeding as noted in the optional parts (A), (B) and (C) of paragraph 15. The parties may choose to have a verbatim record made in child support cases that deviate from the guidelines to assure that the court may properly review any resulting award if there is an appropriate objection to it.

Requiring a formal record to be kept, depending on the nature of the record, may increase the cost of the proceeding.

16. All documentary evidence introduced at the hearing shall be maintained by the umpire until the issuance of the award and the parties shall either keep a copy of all such evidence or obtain the evidence from the umpire after issuance of the award and retain it until the expiration of the time for the filing of any appeal from an order or judgment confirming, vacating or modifying the award, or from the expiration of the time to apply for an order or judgment to vacate or modify the award.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraphs 14 and 16 are required in any agreement in which issues involving children, including custody or parenting time, will be determined. This assures that the court may properly review any resulting award if there is an appropriate objection to it. See, Fawzy v. Fawzy, 199 N.J. 456 (2009).

Required Findings; Form of Award

17. In any proceeding involving custody, parenting time or child support issues, the parties shall require the umpire to make findings of fact and conclusions of law with respect to child-custody, parenting-time or child support issues. As to those issues, the umpire shall state in writing or otherwise record findings of fact and conclusions of law with a focus on the best-interests standard.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 17 is required in any agreement in which issues involving children, including custody, parenting time or child support, will be addressed. This assures that the court may properly review any resulting award if there is an appropriate objection to it. See, Fawzy v. Fawzy, 199 N.J. 456 (2009).

18. In any proceeding that does not involve custody, parenting time or child support issues, the parties shall require the umpire to prepare an award stating findings of fact and conclusions of law.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 18 confirms what the statute provides under N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-12(a). It requires the umpire to make findings of fact and conclusions of law. A detailed award is needed under the APDRA since the APDRA permits a court to review an award for errors of fact or law committed by the umpire.

If the parties do not desire or need that level of review or that detailed an award, they should consider instead an agreement to arbitrate under the Uniform Arbitration Act, N.J.S.A. 2A: 23B-1 et seq. (UAA). Under the UAA there is more limited court review and the parties may opt for a simple award or an award with a brief explanation of the arbitrator's reasons. This may reduce the cost of the proceeding. See UAA Arbitration Agreement form at Appendix B.

Law to Be Applied

19. This agreement shall be interpreted according to the laws of the State of New Jersey.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 19 gives guidance to the umpire about what rules of construction are to be used in interpreting the agreement (i.e., New Jersey law).

20. The issues in this proceeding shall be determined in accordance with applicable principles of substantive law of the State of New Jersey.

Explanatory Note

Paragraph 20 confirms what the statute provides, N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-12(e).

21. The proceeding shall be conducted pursuant to rules of procedure as determined in the discretion of the umpire, consistent with this agreement and the applicable statute(s).

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 21 confirms what the statute provides. See generally N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-11. Note that parties remain free in their agreement to provide for whether there is to be a hearing, and for specific aspects of the conduct of the hearing including when and where a hearing is held. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-11(g) (1), (2) and (3).

Confidentiality

22. Except as may be required by law, the parties and the umpire shall keep the existence, content (including all testimony and documentary evidence presented) and the results of the proceeding confidential. Neither the parties nor the umpire may disclose the existence, content, or results of any proceeding under this agreement without the prior written consent of the parties.

Explanatory Note:

The umpire must keep confidential the umpire's knowledge of the proceeding. However, the parties are not required to keep anything about the proceeding confidential unless they agree to do so. An important reason some parties agree to such a proceeding is to maintain certain information confidential and this optional paragraph 22 provides that.

Discovery and Rules of Evidence

23. The parties agree that the following discovery procedures shall apply to the proceeding:

- ☐ (A) Depositions, inspection and copying of documents and interrogatories when authorized by leave of the umpire in accordance with the New Jersey Rules of Court; or
- ☐ (B) Limited discovery as follows: (specify agreed upon discovery) _____; or
- ☐ (C) No discovery.

Explanatory Note:

The APDRA provides for relatively broad discovery subject to extension of time to complete it or termination of it by the umpire, and the decision of the umpire is subject to summary review by the Superior Court when the umpire is shown to have exceeded the umpire's discretion, under N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-10(a) and (b).

The parties may choose paragraph 23(A), which confirms that the scope of discovery is as provided under the APDRA.

Choosing to do expansive discovery such as that provided under the APDRA may substantially increase the cost of the proceeding, and may not be necessary to a full and fair presentation of the issues to the umpire.

The parties may choose paragraph 23(B) to specify what discovery is needed (e.g., disclosure of closely held business records).

The parties may choose paragraph 23(C) for no discovery if the issue to be resolved is one where no discovery is necessary and all information to be presented to the umpire is already in the hands of the parties or if the parties choose to save legal costs of formal discovery requests and responses by agreeing to work cooperatively to exchange necessary information.

24. The parties agree that the following shall govern the admissibility of evidence in the proceeding:

☐ (A) Such evidence shall be admitted in the discretion of the umpire pursuant to the APDRA; or

☐ (B) The New Jersey Rules of Evidence shall apply; or

☐ (C) The (specify source of other rules) _____ Rules of Evidence shall apply.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, all statutes and common law rules relating to privilege shall remain in effect.

Explanatory Note:

The parties may choose paragraph 24(A), which confirms that the admissibility of evidence is left to the discretion of the umpire, who is not bound to the statutory and common law rules of evidence. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-11(d).

The parties may choose paragraphs (B) or (C) to designate particular rules of evidence. However, applying any rules of evidence may require the services of a lawyer as the umpire, whereas an accountant or social services professional may be the more suitable selection as umpire, depending on the issues to be resolved. Also, applying rules of evidence in the hearing may increase the time and expense of the hearing.

Proceedings at the Hearing and Witnesses/Experts

25. The umpire may hold conferences with the parties. The umpire may require the attendance of any person as a witness and the production of any book or written instrument or document. The fees for the attendance of the witness shall be those allowed witnesses in a civil action. Subpoenas shall issue in the name of and be signed by the umpire, and shall be directed to the person therein named and served in accordance with R. 1:9-3 of the Rules of Court.

Parties may enforce subpoenas as provided by the APDRA.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 25 confirms what the statute provides. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-11(b) and (c) and 24.

26. If the umpire is of the opinion that evidence by impartial experts would be of assistance, the umpire may direct that expert evidence be obtained. The fees and expenses of expert witnesses shall be paid by the parties as directed by the umpire. The parties remain free to retain their own experts to challenge the report of the impartial expert and to cross-examine the impartial expert.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 26 confirms what the statute provides. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-11(f). It also confirms the right of the parties to retain their own experts and to cross-examine the impartial experts.

Pendente Lite (Interim) Relief

27. Any determination reached before a final award that is an intermediate ruling shall be considered pendente lite (interim) relief.

28. Any party may seek pendente lite (interim) relief from the umpire to the same extent as such relief could be requested in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Family Part. Any party may then ask the court to confirm, enforce, modify, correct, or vacate the intermediate ruling in accordance with the APDRA, N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-6(a) and R. 5:3-8(a) or (b).

29. The proceeding shall not be abated, stayed or delayed by the court's review or enforcement of a pendente lite (interim) award unless the umpire or the court so determines.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 28 confirms what the statute provides. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-6(a).

*Paragraph 29 confirms what the statute provides. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-7(a) provides that a motion/application to the court to address a pendente lite (interim) award does not affect the ongoing proceeding on other issues.*

Final Determination

30. An award shall be made within (state number) ____ days following the close of evidence or submission of summations, whichever is later. The umpire, with the consent of the parties, may extend the time for making the award.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 30 is desirable to assure a timely completion of the award. A 30-day time limit, or slightly longer, is typical.

Post-Award Review, Modification or Correction of the Award by the Umpire

31. On application to the umpire by a party to the proceeding, the umpire may modify or correct the award:

(1) If there was a miscalculation of figures or a mistake in the description of any person, thing or property referred to in the award;

(2) If the umpire has made an award based on a matter not submitted to the umpire and the award may be corrected without affecting the merits of the decision on the issues submitted;

(3) If the award is imperfect in a matter of form, not affecting the merits of the controversy; or

(4) If the rights of the party applying for the modification were prejudiced by the umpire erroneously applying law to the issues and facts presented for alternative resolution.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 31 confirms what the statute provides. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-12(d) and 13(e). The parties may include this paragraph in their agreement if the parties want to incorporate for reference the standards for when an umpire may be asked to review the award but they may not vary these four standards governing the umpire's review.

32. A written application to the umpire for modification or correction shall be made to the umpire and written notice given to all parties within 20 days after delivery of the award to the applicant. Written objection to modification must be served on the umpire and other parties to the proceeding within 10 days of receipt of the notice. Any reply shall be made and notice given to all parties within 7 days. The umpire shall dispose of any application, in writing, signed and acknowledged by the umpire, within 30 days after either the reply is made or the time for serving an objection or a reply has expired, whichever is earlier.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 32 confirms what the statute provides about the timing of an application to the umpire and the opposition. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-12(d). This paragraph further provides for the option of a reply.

33. There shall be no further jurisdiction of the umpire to consider any further applications of the parties, absent written consent of the parties to expand the scope of the proceeding.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 33 confirms that the umpire's authority ends completely upon the issuance of a final award and the expiration of the short time within which to seek modification or clarification of the award from the umpire. However, parties, in writing, may expand the scope of the umpire's jurisdiction. Such expansion may include agreement that the umpire may continue to exercise jurisdiction over issues beyond those addressed in the final award.

34. The parties agree that the umpire has jurisdiction after the issuance of any award in order to be able to reconsider the award based upon any factor set forth in R. 4:49-2 or R. 4:50-1 of the Rules of Court. Any reconsideration application under this paragraph shall be made and notice given to all parties within 20 days of receipt of the award. Objection to the reconsideration application and notice to all parties shall be made within 10 days of receipt of the application. Any reply shall be made and notice given to all parties within 7 days. The umpire shall render a decision within 30 days following receipt of the reply or the time for filing an objection or a reply has expired, whichever first occurs.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 34 expands the umpire's jurisdiction beyond that in paragraph 31 and allows a short, 20-day continuation of the jurisdiction of the umpire in order to hear applications to change the award on various grounds beyond the limited grounds described in the statute. Continuing the jurisdiction of the umpire may increase the cost of the process.

Confirmation of the Award

35. The court shall confirm an award upon application of a party made within one year after its delivery to the party, unless the award is vacated or modified as provided under the APDRA.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 35 confirms what the statute provides. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-12(f) and 14.

Modification of the Award by the Court

36. On motion/application to the court by a party to the proceeding within 45 days after the award is delivered to the applicant or within 30 days after receipt of an award modified by the umpire pursuant to paragraph 31 above and N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-12(d) the court shall modify the award if:

(1) There was a miscalculation of figures or a mistake in the description of any person, thing or property referred to in the award;

(2) The umpire has made an award on a matter not submitted to the umpire and the award may be corrected without affecting the merits of the decision upon the issues submitted;

(3) The award is imperfect in a matter of form not affecting the merits of the controversy; or

(4) The rights of the party applying for the modification were prejudiced by the umpire erroneously applying law to the issues and facts presented for alternative resolution.

If the motion/application is granted, the court shall modify the award. A decision of the umpire on the facts shall be final if there is substantial evidence to support that decision. If it appears to the court that the umpire committed prejudicial error in applying applicable law to the issues and facts presented, the court, after modifying the erroneous determination of the umpire, shall appropriately set forth the applicable law and arrive at an appropriate determination under the applicable facts determined by the umpire and then confirm the award as modified.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 36 confirms what the statute provides. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-13(b) and (e). The parties may include this paragraph in their agreement if the parties want to incorporate for reference the standards for when a court may be asked to modify the award, but they may not vary these standards governing the court's review.

Vacating an Award

37. A party to the proceeding may apply to the court to vacate the award within 45 days after the award is delivered to the party or within 30 days after receipt of an award modified by the umpire as provided in paragraphs 31 and 32 above and the provisions of the APDRA, N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-12. Upon the filing of such application, the court shall vacate an award if the rights of the party were prejudiced by:

- (1) Corruption, fraud or misconduct in procuring the award;
- (2) Partiality of an umpire appointed as a neutral;
- (3) In making the award, the umpire's exceeding the umpire's power or so imperfectly executing that power that a final and definite award was not made;
- (4) Failure to follow the procedures set forth in the APDRA, unless the party applying to vacate the award continued with the proceeding with notice of the defect and without objection; or
- (5) The umpire's committing prejudicial error by erroneously applying law to the issues and facts presented for alternative resolution;

(6) The award, pertaining to the issues of custody, parenting time or child support:

a. Does not contain detailed findings of fact and conclusions of law; or

b. Is not in compliance with the provisions of R. 5:1-5 of the Rules of

Court; or

c. There is evidential support that establishes a prima facie claim of harm to the child.

A decision of the umpire on the facts shall be final if there is substantial evidence to support that decision. However, when the application to the court is to vacate the award pursuant to subparagraphs (1) through (4) above, the court shall make an independent determination of any relevant facts thereto de novo.

Explanatory Note:

Paragraph 37 confirms what the statute provides. N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-13(b) and (c).

Part 6 of Paragraph 37 includes the standards for the court to use to review an award involving issues affecting children, including custody, parenting time and child support. These provisions are consistent with provisions required in an agreement involving such issues (see paragraphs 14, 16, and 17 above.)

The parties may include this paragraph in their agreement if the parties want to incorporate for reference the standards for when a court may be asked to vacate the award but they may not vary these standards.

Expanding the Scope of Judicial Review

38. The scope of judicial review is defined by the statute itself at N.J.S.A. 2A: 23A-5(b). The APDRA does not provide for expansion of the scope of judicial review.

Explanatory Note:

N.J.S.A. 2A:23A-5(b) provides that there shall be no review of any intermediate ruling or determination made by the umpire, except as provided in the APDRA at N.J.S.A. 2A:23A-7. An appeal from a final award decision may be obtained only as provided in N.J.S.A. 2A:23A-13.

Other Review

39. The parties agree to permit an appeal of the final award to a panel of one or more private appellate umpires to be agreed upon by the parties or provided by a third party, such as the American Arbitration Association. Such appeal shall be filed within 30 days of receipt of the final or corrected, modified award. The parties agree that the standard of review shall be as follows: (state a standard of review) _____. If an appeal is filed, the award shall not be deemed final for purposes of confirmation pending the appeal. The appellate panel may adopt the original award, modify the original award or substitute its own award. The decision of the appellate panel shall be final and binding and judgment may be entered by any court having jurisdiction thereof. The appellate panel shall consist of:

- ☐ (A) One umpire (arbitrator);
- ☐ (B) A panel of umpires (arbitrators); or
- ☐ (C) The following umpires (arbitrator(s)): (name(s)) _____.

Explanatory Note:

Various third party alternate dispute resolution provider organizations, including the American Arbitration Association, offer parties the option under a set of appellate rules to take an appeal to a panel of arbitrators (umpires) of an award issued by another arbitrator (umpire.) Parties may want to consider this option if they desire to have an appeal from an award rather than being limited to the statutory grounds for vacating an award but, for confidentiality reasons or otherwise, do not desire to provide for review by the court under paragraph 37 above.
