

NOTICE TO THE BAR

MUNICIPAL COURTS – “INCARCERATED DEFENDANT REQUEST FOR RELIEF FORM” AS REQUIRED BY AMENDED RULE 7:7-2(d)

As part of the 2015 Omnibus Rule Amendment Order the Supreme Court adopted amendments to Rule 7:7-2(d) to standardize the process by which an unrepresented incarcerated defendant can seek relief from a municipal court on a matter within the court's jurisdiction. The rule amendment, which was effective September 1, 2015, provides that the municipal court must respond to the request on the record within 45 days from the date received. The amended rule further provides that all such relief requests are to be submitted to the municipal court on a form approved by the Administrative Director of the Courts. This notice promulgates the required “Incarcerated Defendant Request for Relief Form” for use effective immediately.

Because the rule applies only to matters in which an unrepresented incarcerated defendant seeks relief, the requestor (1) must specify on the form the correctional institution in which the requestor is incarcerated, and (2) must certify that he or she is not represented by an attorney on the relevant charges. The form provides check boxes for the requestor to use to identify the type(s) of relief sought. The requestor can seek more than one type of relief on the form.

The amended rule requires that the requestor submit the completed form to the municipal court and send a copy to the municipal prosecutor. In keeping with the Judiciary's goal of helping self-represented litigants more easily navigate our court system, the form directs the requestor to send both the court's original and the prosecutor's copy of the completed form to the court. Municipal court staff will ensure that the municipal prosecutor receives his/her copy of the form.

To facilitate the municipal court providing a timely written response to the requestor, the bottom of page two of the form provides space for the court to document its response. Unless the judge directs specific different notice to the requestor, the municipal court will mail the completed form back to the requestor advising as to the court's decision, which will serve as the response required under the amended rule.

As specified in the rule and as noted above, the municipal court must respond on the record to an eligible defendant's request(s) for relief within 45 days of the court's receipt of the completed form. If the court does not provide a response to the requestor on the record within that 45-day time, the requestor may seek “immediate [further] relief from the vicinage Municipal Presiding Judge.” Page three of the form sets out the addresses of the Vicinage Presiding Judges for this further relief.

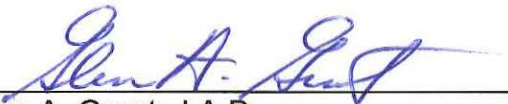

It is likely that some unrepresented incarcerated defendants will continue to send letters to the municipal court requesting relief rather than submit the required form. The amended rule requires the use of the form in those instances. The municipal court may not consider the inmate's request if it is not submitted on the approved form. Therefore, when a non-conforming request from an unrepresented inmate is received, the municipal court will send the inmate a copy of the approved form and advise that the relief request cannot be considered until the completed form is received. The requestor will also be directed to the Judiciary's Internet website for the fillable version of the approved required form.

The municipal courts routinely receive relief requests from categories of defendants other than unrepresented inmates. Requests for relief received from parties other than those specified in the amended rule will be handled consistent with current practice.

Finally, to ensure that unrepresented inmates will have access to the form, an electronic copy in fillable format is posted on the Judiciary's Internet site under both the Pro Se tab and the Municipal Courts section.

Any questions pertaining to use of the new form may be directed to the Municipal Court Services Division at 609-984-8241.

Acting Administrative Director of the Courts
