

NOTICE TO THE BAR

ATTORNEY CERTIFICATION FEE INCREASES AND ANNUAL FEE COLLECTION

The Supreme Court has approved the request of the Board on Attorney Certification to increase fees for certified attorneys. The following fee increases are effective January 1, 2017:

- annual fee – increased from $125 to $175
- recertification fee – increased from $125 to $175
- certification application fee – increased from $200 to $250
- certification examination fee – increased from $150 to $200
- late fee – increased from $50 to $75

In addition, the Court approved two new fees, also effective January 1, 2017, as follows:

- abeyance requests – $25
- extension of time to file application requests – $25

The annual fee payment for 2017 at the increased amount of $175.00 is currently due and must be paid by February 28, 2017. The appropriate annual fee notice is being sent to all certified attorneys. Checks or money orders should be made payable to "Secretary, Board on Attorney Certification" and should be mailed to the following address:

Supreme Court of New Jersey
Board on Attorney Certification
PO Box 965
Trenton, NJ 08625-0965

Annual fee payments received after the February 28, 2017 postmark deadline will be assessed a late fee at the new $75.00 amount.
