The Supreme Court created “the Ad Hoc Committee to evaluate the existing character review process, comparing and contrasting that process with the approach in effect in comparable jurisdictions. The Court directed that the Ad Hoc Committee issue a report setting forth findings and recommendations...regarding changes to the process, where appropriate. In charging the Ad Hoc Committee, the Supreme Court was especially interested in recommendations that may help expedite the process without undermining the Court's ability to ensure that only candidates with the requisite good character and fitness are admitted to the practice of law.” Report at 2.

The Supreme Court will not consider comments submitted anonymously. Thus, those submitting comments by mail should include their name and address (and those submitting comments by e-mail should include their name and e-mail address). Comments are subject to public disclosure upon receipt.
