

NOTICE TO THE BAR

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO RULE 2:11-1 CONCERNING ORAL ARGUMENT BEFORE THE APPELLATE DIVISION AND SUPREME COURT – PUBLICATION FOR COMMENT

The Supreme Court by this notice is requesting written comments on an amendment to Rule 2:11-1 of the Rules of Court proposed by the Supreme Court Clerk's Office to modify the manner in which appeals will be argued before the Appellate Division of Superior Court and the Supreme Court. The proposed amendment specifically relates to the number of attorneys who may present oral argument.

Rule 2:11-1(b)(3) at present permits up to two attorneys to appear at oral argument in the Appellate Division or the Supreme Court on behalf of a single party. The proposed amendment, which accompanies this notice, would modify the rule so as to provide that only one attorney will be heard for each party.

Please send any comments on the proposed amended rule in writing by Monday, June 15, 2018 to:

Rule 2:11-1. Appellate Calendar; Oral Argument

(a) Calendar. ... no change

(b) Oral Argument.

(1) ... no change

(2) ... no change

(3) Counsel shall not be permitted to argue for a party who has neither filed a brief nor joined in another party's brief. The appellant shall be entitled to open and conclude argument. An appeal and cross appeal shall be argued together, the party first appealing being entitled to open and conclude, unless the court otherwise orders. Each party will be allowed a maximum of 30 minutes for argument in the Supreme Court, unless the Court determines more time is necessary, and 30 minutes in the Appellate Division, but the court may terminate the argument at any time it deems the issues adequately argued. [No more than two] One attorney[s] will be heard for each party, unless the court otherwise orders. An attorney will not be permitted to read at length from the briefs, appendices, transcripts or decision.
