

NOTICE TO THE BAR

Civil Arbitration Program – Continued Training for Arbitrators Admitted to the Court Roster of Arbitrators in 2017

Civil arbitrators must complete initial training as a condition of admission to the court roster of arbitrators and after that initial training must complete continuing training in order to stay on the roster (R. 1:40-12(c)). Specifically, to remain eligible for continued inclusion on the roster, arbitrators must complete two hours of training after the first two years, and two additional hours of training during each subsequent four-year period.

This notice is a reminder that those arbitrators who were admitted to the civil arbitrator roster in 2017 are required to take a retraining course in 2019. The local arbitration selection committees in each vicinage will be conducting those trainings. Information regarding the available training sessions will be posted on the Judiciary's Civil Arbitration Program webpage at <http://njcourts.gov/courts/civil/arbipoli.html>.

Questions regarding this Notice, about the roster of arbitrators, or about the arbitration program itself may be directed to Melissa A. Czartoryski, Chief of Civil Court Programs, Administrative Office of the Courts, Hughes Justice Complex, P.O. Box 981, Trenton, NJ 08625; telephone (609) 815-2900 ext. 54900; email: Melissa.Czartoryski@njcourts.gov.
