ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE FORMS (CIVIL AND FAMILY) -- CONTINUED ONLINE AVAILABILITY AFTER REMOVAL FROM APPENDICES TO THE COURT RULES

As recommended by the Civil and Family Practice Committees, the Supreme Court has approved the removal of four non-mandatory Order to Show Cause forms from the Appendices to the Rules of Court (Appendices XII-F through XII-I). That action, to be effective September 1, 2019, is reflected in the Omnibus Rule Amendment Order dated July 29, 2019.

While these four forms, which were promulgated by Directives #16-05 and #18-08, thus no longer will be part of the Court Rules, they remain in effect and available on the Judiciary's website (www.njcourts.gov). The four forms, listed below, can be found by searching using either the form name or the Judiciary's form catalog number (CN) in the Forms section of the Self-Help Page (www.njcourts.gov/selfhelp/catalog.html):

- Order to Show Cause – Summary Action, Family Part (R. 5:4-3(b)) (formerly Rules Appendix XII-F) – CN 10704
- Order to Show Cause – Preliminary Injunction (R. 4:52) (formerly Rules Appendix XII-G) – CN 10705
- Order to Show Cause with Temporary Restraints (R. 4:52) (formerly Rules Appendix XII-H) – CN 10308
- Order to Show Cause – Summary Action, Probate Part (R. 4:83-1) (formerly Rules Appendix XII-I – CN 11215

Consistent with the process for amending other Judiciary forms, future revisions to these Order to Show Cause forms will be promulgated by Administrative Directive and notice to the bar.

Questions regarding this notice or the referenced forms may be directed to the Civil Practice Division at 609-815-2900 ext. 54900 or the Family Practice Division at 609-815-2900, ext. 55350.
