ATTORNEY MALPRACTICE INSURANCE – NEW RULE 1:21-1D (“INDIVIDUALS OR PARTNERSHIPS ENGAGED IN THE PRIVATE PRACTICE OF LAW; REPORTING OF PROFESSIONAL LIABILITY INSURANCE”); RELATED CONFORMING AMENDMENTS

The Supreme Court has adopted new Court Rule 1:21-1D (“Individuals or Partnerships Engaged in the Private Practice of Law; Reporting of Professional Liability Insurance”), applicable to certain attorneys engaged in the private practice of law who elect voluntarily to obtain a policy of professional liability insurance. Under the new Rule, such an attorney must file (or to cause an insurer to file) with the Court a certificate of insurance setting forth basic policy information and any policy amendments, renewals, or terminations. Such information will be accessible by the public in the same manner as the information required under Rules 1:21-1A (“Professional Corporations for the Practice of Law”), 1:21-1B (“Limited Liability Companies for the Practice of Law”), and 1:21-1C (“Limited Liability Partnerships for the Practice of Law”).

The Court’s attached December 21, 2021 Order implements one of the recommendations of the Supreme Court Ad Hoc Committee on Attorney Malpractice Insurance in its 2017 report. All necessary technological enhancements have been completed to support implementation of the new reporting requirement, including integration of attorney malpractice information into the existing attorney index available on the Judiciary’s website.

The Court has also adopted conforming amendments to Rules 1:21-1A, -1B, and -1C to require only the last four digits of the policy number rather than the full policy number to be reported for malpractice insurance policies held by Professional Corporations (Rule 1:21-1A), Limited Liability Companies (Rule 1:21-1B), and Limited Liability Partnerships (Rule 1:21-1C).

The Court’s December 21, 2021 Order is effective January 1, 2022.

Questions on this notice should be directed to the Supreme Court Clerk’s Office at (609) 815-2955.
