

NOTICE TO THE BAR

DEFAULTS SCHEDULED FOR REVIEW
BY THE DISCIPLINARY REVIEW BOARD
THURSDAY, MARCH 16, 2023

The following matters have been certified to the Disciplinary Review Board as defaults, in accordance with R. 1:20-4(f):

In the Matters of Robert James Stack

Docket Nos. DRB 23-005 and 23-006

District Docket Nos. XIV-2022-0190E, XIV-2020-0178E, XIV-2020-0233E, and XIV-2020-0517E

In the Matter of Richard D. Schibell

Docket No. DRB 23-012

District Docket No. XIV-2019-0579E

In the Matters of Nabil Nadim Kassem

Docket Nos. DRB 23-013 and 23-014

District Docket Nos. XI-2021-0013E and XI-2021-0014E

These matters are scheduled to be reviewed by the Board on Thursday, March 16, 2023. R. 1:20-4(f) provides that an attorney-respondent's failure to timely file an answer "shall be deemed an admission that the allegations of the complaint are true and . . . provide sufficient basis for the imposition of discipline." Although chances for a successful motion are limited, a motion to vacate the default may be filed with the Board by no later than February 13, 2023. MOTIONS RECEIVED AFTER THE DEADLINE WILL NOT BE REVIEWED BY THE BOARD. The motion should specify why the attorney-respondent failed to file a timely answer (including lack of notice) and should set forth any claimed meritorious defenses to the ethics charge. The motion must also be simultaneously served on the Director of the Office of Attorney Ethics and, where appropriate, the district ethics committee responsible for the underlying ethics matter. A certification regarding that service must accompany any documents filed with the Board.

Respondents are hereby advised that, generally, in a default matter, the discipline is enhanced to reflect a respondent's failure to cooperate with disciplinary authorities as an aggravating factor. In re Kivler, 193 N.J. 332, 338 (2008).

Respondents may communicate with the Board by contacting the Office of Board Counsel at:
