

NOTICE TO THE BAR AND PUBLIC
FAMILY – ONLINE ACCESS TO THE JUDICIARY’S ROSTER OF STATEWIDE APPROVED PARENTING COORDINATORS

As of December 26, 2023, attorneys and the public can access the Judiciary’s Roster of Statewide Approved Parenting Coordinators on njcourts.gov.

Pursuant to Administrative Directive #16-23, issued September 1, 2023, the court may appoint a parenting coordinator to assist parents with their court-ordered parenting plan and resolve day-to-day custody and parenting time issues.

Parties may select a parenting coordinator from the Judiciary’s Roster which is made up of professionals who received necessary training and meet specific qualifications. Parents may also consent to utilize a parenting coordinator who is not on the Judiciary’s Roster. For more information about becoming a parenting coordinator or about the Parenting Coordinator Program in general visit Parenting Coordinator Program | NJ Courts.

Questions may also be directed to Joanne M. Dietrich, Family Practice Assistant Director at Joanne.Dietrich@njcourts.gov or at (609) 815-2900, ext. 55350.
