Subj: Criminal - Procedures for Certificates to Suspend Certain Employment or Occupational Disabilities Related to Criminal Convictions

Date: March 4, 2024

As approved by the Judicial Council, this Directive promulgates procedures and forms that address applications by individuals convicted of criminal offenses who petition the court to issue a Certificate to Suspend Certain Employment or Occupational Disabilities (hereinafter “Certificates”) in accordance with N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-7 through -12.

These Certificates may be issued by the “supervising authority” pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-7(c)(3). The court is defined as the supervising authority if the petitioner was subject to probation or was not required to serve a period of supervision, and as the State Parole Board if the petitioner served parole supervision. An applicant who is a parolee and who is seeking relief must file an application with the State Parole Board.

The attached forms include: (a) a Summary of Eligibility (Attachment 1); (b) the Application to Suspend Employment/Occupational Disabilities (Attachment 2); (c) the Certificate Suspending Employment/Occupational Disabilities (Attachment 3); (d) Notice of Ineligibility (Attachment 4); and (e) Revocation of Certificate (Attachment 5).

The procedures contained herein and the attached forms apply only to requests for Certificates filed with the courts. Attorneys, on behalf of their clients, must file all such applications on notice to the County Prosecutor or the Attorney's General Office in eCourts in the county where the person is being sentenced or was sentenced. Self-represented litigants must file all such applications, with notice to the County Prosecutor or the Attorney's General Office, in the Judiciary Electronic Document Submission (JEDS) system. JEDS may be accessed using the link provided: <https://www.njcourts.gov/self-help/jeds>

For information on filing an application with the Parole Board see www.nj.gov/parole/services/certificates.

I. Purpose of Certificate

The purpose of a Certificate is to relieve disabilities, forfeitures, or bars, except those required or established by federal law, that otherwise would apply to persons convicted of criminal offenses related to:

(1) public employment by a State, county or municipal agency, excluding elected office, or employment in law enforcement, corrections, the judiciary, a position related to homeland security or emergency management, or any position that has access to sensitive information that could threaten the public health, welfare, or safety. See N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-7(c)(1);

(2) qualification for a license or certification to practice certain professions, occupations or businesses, except the practice of law, or as a mortgage loan originator, or residential mortgage lender or residential mortgage broker as a qualified individual licensee, pursuant to the "New Jersey Residential Mortgage Lending Act." See N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-7(b)(2); or

(3) admission to an examination for that license or certification, except for the bar examination, a qualified written test for a mortgage loan originator, or residential mortgage lender or broker as a qualified individual licensee, or an examination for a law enforcement, homeland security, or emergency management position. See N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-7(b)(3).

II. Limitations

The Certificate only relieves the petitioner from disabilities, forfeitures, or bars that were the result of a criminal conviction. An employer, or a licensing or regulatory entity, may have another basis or other bases for barring a petitioner from obtaining a license or certification, or from employment in a specific profession, occupation or business. Further, the mandates in N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-7 through -12 do not apply to private employers.

III. Qualified Offenders (Eligibility)

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-7(c)(2), a person is a “qualified offender” eligible for a Certificate if the person has one criminal conviction or has convictions for more than one crime charged in separate counts of one indictment or accusation. Multiple convictions charged in two indictments or two accusations, or one indictment and one accusation filed in the same court prior to entry of judgment under any of them, shall be deemed to be one conviction for purposes of Certificate eligibility. Convictions of crimes entered more than ten years prior to an application for a Certificate shall not be considered in determining whether a person has one criminal conviction.

A person seeking a Certificate at the time of sentencing is a “qualified offender” if the person will have one conviction, as described above, upon sentencing and entry of the judgment of conviction.

IV. Notice to Prosecutor

The applicant shall provide notice and a copy of the application to the County Prosecutor or the Attorney General’s Office that prosecuted their case. Notification of the pendency of an application and issuance of a certificate shall be provided by the court to that office. See N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-10.

V. Issuance of Certificate

The issuance of a Certificate depends on the qualified offender’s status when the application is filed.

(1) Applications At the Time of Sentencing (N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-8(a))

If the application is sought at the time of sentencing, a Certificate may be issued if the applicant:

- (a) is a qualified offender, who is being sentenced to a non-incarcerative sentence for a second, third, or fourth degree crime;
- (b) has established that a specific licensing or employment disqualification, forfeiture or bar, will apply to the applicant, and may endanger the applicant's ability to maintain existing public employment or employment for which the applicant has made application, or to engage in a business enterprise for which a license or certification is required;
- (c) has no pending criminal charges, and there is no information presented that such a charge is imminent; and
- (d) has established that issuance of a Certificate is consistent with the public interest.

(2) Applications For Those Sentenced to Probation or No Supervision (N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-8(b))

A Certificate may be issued for a qualified offender who is or was subject to probation or who was not required to serve a period of supervision if it is determined that:

- (a) the applicant is convicted of a second, third, or fourth degree offense and is otherwise eligible for relief under subsection N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-8(c);
- (b) the applicant has not been convicted of a crime since the conviction for which the person is under supervision, does not have a pending criminal charge, and there is no information presented that such a charge is imminent;

- (c) issuing the certificate will not pose a substantial risk to public safety; and
- (d) issuing the certificate will assist in the successful reintegration of the offender and is consistent with the public interest.

Note: Certain convictions will render the person ineligible for a Certificate, for example NERA crimes (N.J.S.A. 2C:43-7.2), second degree crimes defined in chapters 13, 14, 15, 16, 24, 27, 30, 33, 38 of Title 2C of the New Jersey Statutes, and Megan's Law crimes under N.J.S.A. 2C:7-2. See N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-8(c).

(3) Applications Three Years after Completion of the Sentence (N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-8(d))

A Certificate may be issued to a qualified offender three years after completion of the incarcerative or supervisory portion of their sentence, whichever is later, if it is determined that:

- (a) does not pose a substantial risk to public safety;
- (b) issuing the certificate does not pose a substantial risk to public safety; and;
- (c) issuing the certificate will assist in the successful reintegration of the offender and is consistent with the public interest.
- (d) the conviction is not subject to any of the disqualifying convictions enumerated in N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-8(e).

VI. Revocation of Certificate

Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-11, a Certificate shall no longer be valid if the person is subsequently indicted for a first- or second-degree crime or convicted of a crime. Upon presentation of proof that the criminal charges or indictment have been dismissed, or of an acquittal after trial, the court may reinstate a revoked Certificate.

A Certificate may also be revoked at any time upon application of the prosecutor or on the court's own initiative when information is received that circumstances have materially changed such that the Certificate would no longer be authorized or is no longer in the public interest. See N.J.S.A. 2A:168A-11(c).

A copy of the Certificate or notice of ineligibility or revocation of same shall be sent to the Administrative Office of the Courts, Criminal Practice Division, by email to AOC-CrimPrac.mbx@njcourts.gov.

Any questions regarding the Directive and the attached forms may be directed to the Criminal Practice Division at 609-815-2900, ext. 55300, or by email to AOC-CrimPrac.mbx@njcourts.gov.
