Burlington Vicinage to Hold Naturalization Ceremony

Supreme Court Justice Douglas M. Fasciale will preside over a naturalization ceremony with Assignment Judge Jeanne T. Covert for 14 Burlington County residents and one Camden County resident at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 1 in the Historic Courthouse, 120 High St., Mount Holly.

“We are so pleased and honored to welcome Associate Justice Douglas M. Fasciale of the New Jersey Supreme Court to join us as our host for the naturalization ceremony,” Judge Covert said.

Before the Oath of Allegiance is administered, Vincent Stokes, supervisory officer for the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, will present the applicants, who come from 10 countries.

Remarks will be delivered by Justice Fasciale as well as Burlington County Solicitor Ashley Buono, who also is president of the Burlington County Bar Association.

Superior Court Judge Gerard Breland will close the ceremony by singing America the Beautiful.
