Subject: SUPREME COURT COMMITTEE ON MINORITY CONCERNS REPORT

Judge Grant,

I have read the Supreme Court Committee on Minority Concerns Report for 2015-2017. I have also read the Committee's recommendations. Recommendation 2017:03 is that there be mandatory continuing legal education on "specified diversity requirements." I do not believe the Supreme Court should accept this recommendation. Adoption of this recommendation is essentially the Supreme Court stating to all attorneys that we attorneys are so diversity ignorant and/or so diversity insensitive that it is imperative to the practice of law that we undergo "diversity training" to address the alleged ignorance and/or insensitivity. I believe that mandate not only would be an insult to all attorneys, but also would perpetuate that unfounded stereotype. RPC 8.4(g) already adequately addresses attorneys inappropriate conduct in this regard.

Thank you,

Scott M. Wilhelm, Esq.
