Jeffrey Hark, Esq. Law office of Hark & Hark

- 1) Issue: Is there any notice of criminal or civil contempt for violation of this proposed Rule by the respondent?
- 2) I do not believe 10 days enough time to respond if there are issue of mental health and obtaining the appropriate medical records by respondent to reply?
- 3) If the respondent's family are part of the application in the law enforcement's affidavit what about privacy issues?
- 4) The proposed rule does not allow or even express any entitlement by the respondent additional time if s/he is restrained anywhere, jail, rehab, mental health placement.....
- 5) what about a due process right of a respondent to revisit the Final Court Order at any time.... and is this going to be hear by the family court or criminal court judge?
