Good morning,

My name is Kevin Kieffer I am a Staff Attorney for Central Jersey Legal Services. I only practice family law and a majority of my work is assisting survivors of domestic violence get restraining orders. I am happy to read that some participants may be allowed to participate remotely for in person hearings. I have found that witnesses are less likely to agree to testify if they have to appear in court in person. Either due to fear or inability to take a day off work and I think allowing some to participate remotely will help in this respect.

Sincerely,
Kevin Raul Kieffer, Esq.
