Subject: [External]Remote appearances

I am writing in support of continuing Zoom appearances for things like depositions, case management conferences, arbitrations, oral arguments, settlement conferences and trial calls. This is a huge benefit to a small firm litigator like myself, and would continue to save me time, energy and money. I am looking forward to returning to in person trials as long as safety is our priority. However, maintaining the option of having experts and other witnesses appear remotely would continue to be a very significant benefit.

Thank you for your consideration.
