Good morning,

I support the continued reliance on virtual proceedings, whether or not COVID remains an issue.

Virtual conferences, trial calls, motions, and appearances generally, save time for all parties and the court; all, without any adverse impact on the proceeding.

Adjournments for calendar conflicts will be almost unheard of, as the conflict can be easily resolved with re-scheduling a telephone call or video meeting.

“Simple” trials are also amenable to video appearances, at least for some witnesses.

Thank you.

Respectfully,

Fred Rabinowitz
