I see the court is asking for public input if the court could remain virtual. I am completely opposed to this thought process. There's no reason courts can't be in session. So many other businesses are back to normal work hours, time for the court to get with program and start moving cases along. Walmart has maintained normalcy not sure why court doesn't want to other than a taste of the good life working from home. Come on courts get off your butts and get to work it's going to be worse than NJ Division of Motor Vehicle.
