ON BEHALF OF FORECLOSURE
PLAINTIFF ASTORIA FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION IN UNCONTESTED CASES

SUPERIOR COURT OF NEW JERSEY
CHANCERY DIVISION

MERCER COUNTY F -040959-13

Docket No.:

CIVIL ACTION

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, Astoria Federal Savings and Loan Association, by and through their attorneys,
Milstead & Associates, LLC, by way of Verified Complaint, hereby say as follows:

1. Astoria Federal Savings and Loan Association, (hereinafter "Astoria"), holds and services mortgages encumbering residential properties in the State of New Jersey.
2. When a loan becomes delinquent and after all efforts to assist the borrower to bring the loan current have failed, Astoria is responsible for commencing a foreclosure action to collect upon the Note and Mortgage. In all New Jersey cases, Astoria sends out a Notice of Intention to Foreclose (hereinafter "NOI") as required by the Fair Foreclosure Action, which advises the borrower of the situation and provides the borrower with the necessary information to bring the loan current. The NOI is sent at least 30 days prior to the commencement of the foreclosure action. In the event the borrower does not cure the default, and after the NOI expires, the loan is referred to local counsel to initiate foreclosure.

3. On February 27, 2012, the New Jersey Supreme Court issued its opinion in U.S. Bank National Association v. Guillaume, 209 N.J. 449 (2012), which requires strict compliance with the requirements of the Fair Foreclosure Act. In so holding, the Court stated that the NOI must identify the lender and provide the lender's address. The Court in Guillaume further held that a Court adjudicating a foreclosure action in which the strict requirement of N.J.S.A. 2A:50-56 were not met, has the judicial discretion to choose an appropriate remedy permitting the cure of the deficient NOI.
4. Following the Court's opinion in Guillaume, the Court issued an Order on April 4, 2012, authorizing the Court to entertain Orders to Show Cause, to be filed by lenders and their servicing agents, which seek to allow the lenders to cure deficient NOIs previously served in pending, pre-judgment, uncontested foreclosure actions which were filed prior to February 27, 2012. A copy of this Order is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".
5. Astoria has identified foreclosure case's filed prior to February 27, 2012 in which it served NOIs that failed to properly identify the lender and/or provide the lender's address as required by N.J.S.A. 2A:50-56.
6. Astoria has attached hereto, as Exhibit "B", residential foreclosure actions, which are at the pre-judgment stage of the litigation, for which Astoria has identified as having an NOI that failed to properly identify the lender or provide the lender's address.
7. Attached hereto as Exhibit "C" is a true and accurate copy of a proposed form of corrected NOI which Astoria currently utilizes and proposes to send to each Defendant identified in Exhibit "B". Should the Court so authorize, Astoria will send this form of corrected NOI to each borrower identified. The corrected NOI contains the name and address of the current lender and will contain the specific information unique to each particular borrower, which will enable them to reinstate their loan. The corrective NOI which Astoria proposes to send will exclude all attorney's fees and costs which have been incurred in connection with the foreclosure action.

8. Astoria will also send the proposed form of letter of explanation, attached hereto as Exhibit "D", to each defendant pursuant to the April 4, 2012 Order of the New Jersey Supreme Court.
9. Astoria requests relief from this Court to issue an Order to Show Cause consistent with the Supreme Court's April 4, 2012 Order which permits Astoria to provide the borrowers with a corrective form of NOI.
10. WHEREFORE, Astoria respectfully request judgment:
 - (a) Deeming the form of Notice of Intention to Foreclose attached as Exhibit "C" to the Verified Complaint as compliant with the requirements of the Fair Foreclosure Act;
 - (b) Permitting Astoria, through its counsel, to serve the new Notice of Intentions to Foreclose, in the form attached as Exhibit "C" to each borrower / defendant obligated on the underlying debt, for pre-judgment foreclosure actions listed on Exhibit "B" of the Verified Complaint, where Astoria is the Plaintiff, along with the letter of explanation, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "D".
 - (c) Any further relief the Court deems equitable and just.

CERTIFICATION

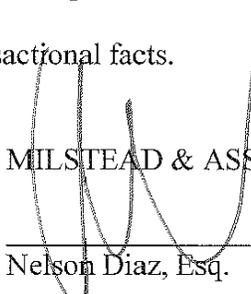

I certify pursuant to Rule 4:5-1 that, to the best of my knowledge, this matter is not the subject of any other action pending in any court or of a pending arbitration proceeding, nor is any other action or arbitration proceeding contemplated, other than the pending foreclosure actions in Exhibit "B" to the Verified Complaint, separate actions initiated outside of the uncontested foreclosure proceedings in which foreclosure Defendants may have raised claims concerning, inter alia, their NOIs but which are not at issue in this application.

I further certify that I am unaware of any non-party who should be joined in this action pursuant to Rule 4:28 or who is subject to joinder pursuant to Rule 4:29-1(b) because of potential liability to any party based on the same transactional facts.

RE: Order to Show Cause and Docket Number: CAPTION AND DOCKET NUMBER
Your foreclosure action: CAPTION AND DOCKET NUMBER

Dear Borrower:

Please be advised that the New Jersey Supreme Court recently held in U.S. Bank, N.A. v. Guillaume, 209 N.J. 449 (2012) that mortgage lenders seeking to foreclose must strictly comply with the New Jersey Fair Foreclosure Act's requirement that a Notice of Intention to foreclose set forth the information set forth in the Act.

Why You Are Receiving This Letter

You are receiving this letter because you are the defendant in a pending foreclosure action, and it is believed that the Notice of Intention to Foreclose served upon you prior to the commencement of the foreclosure action may not have strictly complied with the requirements of the Fair Foreclosure Act.

By the Court's Order to Show Cause dated _____, 2013, and in compliance with the Supreme Court's opinion in U.S. Bank, N.A. v. Guillaume, the Judge gave permission to _____ (name of Bank) to serve, along with the Order to Show Cause and verified Complaint, corrected Notices of Intention to foreclose on all defendant mortgagors or parties obligated on the debt in pending foreclosure actions filed before February 28, 2012 in which _____ (name of Bank) is the plaintiff and/or servicer.

Information about the Order to Show Cause and Verified Complaint

Enclosed with this letter are copies of the Order to Show Cause and Verified Complaint. The Verified Complaint lists all of the matters for which _____ (name of Bank) is seeking to issue new Notices of Intention to Foreclose.

The attachments to the Verified Complaint which lists the foreclosure actions will be made available on the New Jersey Court's website at <http://www.judiciary.state.nj.us>. If you are unsure of the docket number for your foreclosure action, you can access that information on the Court's website on the attached exhibits to the Verified Complaint by entering your name on the automatic search field on the Court's website. If you do not have access to a computer or have trouble locating that information on the Court's website, you can contact a representative of _____ (name of Bank) at _____ (phone number) who can assist you in locating the information about your foreclosure.

Information About the Corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose

Also enclosed with this letter is the corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose. It allows you an additional 30 days in which to cure the default without having to pay the plaintiff's court costs and attorney's fees. It also sets forth important information about your loan, including information on how you can cure the default; the consequences of failing to cure the default; contact information for the plaintiff, and information about retaining counsel and borrower assistance. If you fail to cure the default by the date set forth in the corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose, the foreclosure action against you will proceed.

With the passage of time since the foreclosure action was filed against you, the lender on your loan may have changed from the named plaintiff in the foreclosure action. The corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose lists the name and address of the current lender on your loan.

Questions About the Notice of Intention to Foreclose

Should you have questions with regard to your loan or the corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose, please contact _____ (name) at _____ (phone number). Additional contact information is provided in the corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose.

How to File an Objection

You have the right to object the enclosed Order to Show Cause (the process by which the Court gave the plaintiff permission to serve the corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose). To do so, you must file a written objection under the docket number for the Order to Show Cause.

You also have the right to object to the enclosed corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose. To do so, you must file a written objection under the docket number for the foreclosure action in your individual case.

For either type of objection, you must set forth with specificity the basis of the objection, and file the objection with the Superior Court Clerk's Office at the following address by

Superior Court Clerk's Office, Foreclosure Processing Services
Attn: Objection to NOI
PO Box 971
Trenton, NJ 08625

You must also serve a copy of the objection on the plaintiff's attorney:

Nelson Diaz, Esq.
Milstead & Associates, LLC
220 Lake Drive East, Suite 301
Cherry Hill, NJ 08002

and mail a copy of the objection to Judge _____ at the following address:

Your personal appearance at the Superior Court Clerk's Office or your local courthouse will not qualify as an objection. A telephone call will not protect your rights; you must file your objection and serve it on the plaintiff's attorney if you want the Court to hear your objection to the relief the plaintiff is seeking. If you file a specific written objection, the case will be sent to a Judge for resolution. You will be informed by the Judge of the time and place of the hearing of your objection.

Questions About Filing an Objection:

Should you have any questions related to the procedure for filing an objection, please visit the New Jersey Court on Line Self Help Center at <http://www.Judiciary.state.nj.us/prose/index.htm>. You may also contact the Superior Court Clerk's Office at (609) 421-6100 or at SCCOForeclosure.Mailbox@judiciary.state.nj.us.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO FORECLOSE

Dear Sir/Madam:

Please be advised that this firm represents the interest of the Lender, Astoria Federal Savings and Loan Association, whose address is _____, with respect to a Note that you executed on [Date of note] in the principal amount of $[Amount], which is secured by a mortgage on the above-referenced property, dated [Date of mortgage].

This letter is to inform you that you are in default of your obligations pursuant to the above referenced obligation for failure to pay your full regular monthly payments. Your loan has been in default since [Date of Default].

The total amount owed, as of [Date], is [0.00] which is comprised of:

Monthly payments of Principal, Interest and Escrow:	$0.00
Late Charges:	$0.00
Total Due:	$0.00

You have the right to cure the default by payment to the lender/servicer, identified below, the sum of $0.00 on or before [Date]. Any other scheduled installments and late charges, which will become due to us during this period, even though such installment may not yet be due, is to be included with your payment. All payments must be tendered in the form of certified check, money order or cashier's check.

All payments should be made to:

If you do not cure the default set forth above by the date specified, the lender may take steps to terminate your ownership interest in the above referenced property by commencing a foreclosure suit in the Superior Court of New Jersey.

If you fail to cure the default by the above specified date, and the lender refers this matter to an attorney for institution of a foreclosure suit in the Superior Court of the State of New Jersey, you still retain the right to cure the default pursuant to Section 5 of the "Fair Foreclosure Act" up to the time of the entry of a final foreclosure judgment or an order of redemption, but you shall be responsible for the lender's court costs and attorney's fees in an amount not to exceed that amount permitted pursuant to the Rules Governing the Courts of the State of New Jersey.

You have the right to transfer the real estate to another person subject to the mortgage and the transferee has the right to cure the default as provided in the "Fair Foreclosure Act", subject to the terms and conditions of the mortgage.

You are advised to seek counsel from an attorney of your own choosing concerning your residential mortgage default situation. If you are unable to obtain an attorney, you may communicate with the New Jersey Bar Association or Lawyer Referral Service in the county in which your property is located. If you are unable to afford an attorney, you may communicate with the Legal Services Office in the county in which your property is located. [A list of Legal Services Offices is attached].

You may be eligible for financial assistance for curing your default pursuant to programs operated by the State or federal government or non-profit organizations, if any, as identified by the Commissioner of Banking. A list of such programs promulgated by the Commissioner is attached hereto.

You may contact the Lender, Astoria Federal Savings and Loan Association or its Servicer as Lender's representative: Dovenmuehle Mortgage, Inc. at 800-669-4268 to speak with a loan representative and/or if you disagree with the lender's assertion that a default has occurred or the correctness of the mortgage lender's calculation of the amount required to cure the default.

Sincerely,

Milstead & Associates, LLC on behalf of Astoria Federal Savings and Loan Association

SUPREME COURT OF NEW JERSEY

In furtherance of the Court's holding in U.S. Bank N.A. v. Guillaume, A-11-11 (February 27, 2012), it is ORDERED that Hon. Paul Innes, P.J.Ch., Mercer Vicinage, and Hon. Margaret Mary McVeigh, P.J.Ch., Passaic Vicinage, are each authorized to entertain summary actions by Orders to Show Cause as to why plaintiffs in any uncontested residential mortgage foreclosure actions filed on or before February 27, 2012 in which final judgment has not yet been entered, who served Notices of Intention to Foreclose that are deficient under the Fair Foreclosure Act, N.J.S.A. 2A:50-56, should not be allowed to serve corrected Notices of Intention to Foreclose on defendant mortgagors and/or parties obligated on the debt. Such summary actions should be filed with the Clerk of the Superior Court and assigned to each judge upon filing.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that, if approved by the court, any corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose served pursuant to an order issued as a result of such an action must be accompanied by a letter to the defendant mortgagor and/or parties obligated on the debt setting forth the reasons why the corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose is being served, the procedure to follow in the event a defendant wishes to object to the Notice of Intention to Foreclose, the individuals to contact with any questions, and that the receipt of the corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose allows defendant mortgagors and/or parties obligated on the debt 30 days in which to object or to cure the default.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that any Rule 4:64-1(a) or Rule 4:64-2(d) Certification of Diligent Inquiry filed by a plaintiff who has served a corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose pursuant to an order issued as a result of such summary action shall list therein with specificity the steps taken to cure the deficient Notice of Intention to Foreclose.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that the Office of Foreclosure is authorized to recommend the entry of final judgment pursuant to Rule 1:34-6 in uncontested actions in which the procedures set forth in this Order have been followed.
