Objection to the enclosed Order to Show Cause

Superior Court Clerk's Office
Foreclosure Processing Services
Attention: Objection to Notice of Intention to Foreclose
P.O.Box 971
Trenton, New Jersey 08625

I object to the Notice of Intent to Foreclose due to the lack of assistance from Wells Fargo when I first missed payments due to unemployment due to the economic downturn. I made several attempts to make arrangements to cure my debt, but every attempt was met with request for more and more paperwork and denial after denial.

My tenants also lost their jobs and was unable to pay the rent, leaving me with a large arrears plus large outstanding utility bills. This occurred while I was still going through the process of trying to get a modification to deal with the outstanding balance and arrears. I need my case to be opened up and for "Wells Fargo" to give me an opportunity to continue to pay my mortgage.

I feel that Wells Fargo took advantage of my lack of knowledge on the foreclosure process. Almost every telephone conversation I had with Wells Fargo, I was informed that it was being recorded; I made sure I told the representative that I didn't think that they wanted to help me.

At one point during the process of trying to save my home, I had a theft of my boiler system; I had to borrow money from friend's to purchase a new boiler because Wells Fargo had the insurance check and did not release it until the boiler was installed and I had sent in proof that it was replaced and I paid the installation cost.

I am asking for an opportunity to restore my payments and obtain some assistance from Wells Fargo in doing so.

I have files and files of ongoing correspondence from my efforts to remedy this unfortunate situation which was brought on by the unfortunate downturn of the economy which resulted in loss of income due to unemployment.

More recently, a few days after receiving the amended "Notice of Intent to Foreclose". I was invited by Wells Fargo to a seminar to get help to save my home which was scheduled to be held in Pennsylvania. I was unable to attend, but I was told I would be informed upcoming events that would help save my home. I intend to fulfill my obligation to Wells Fargo and I am currently in the process of securing a modification.

I am requesting your assistance in this delicate matter.

Respectfully Submitted,

Wayne Lendore

Information About the Corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose

Also enclosed with this letter is the corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose. It allows you an additional 30 days in which to cure the default without having to pay the plaintiff's court costs and attorneys' fees. It also sets forth important information about your loan, including information on how you can cure the default; the consequences of failing to cure the default; contact information for the plaintiff; and information about retaining counsel and borrower assistance. If you fail to cure the default by the date set forth in the corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose, the foreclosure action against you will proceed.

With the passage of time since the foreclosure action was filed against you, the lender on your loan may have changed from the named plaintiff in the foreclosure action. The corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose lists the name and address of the current lender on your loan.

How to File an Objection

You have the right to object to the enclosed Order to Show Cause (the process by which the court gave the plaintiff permission to serve the corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose). To do so, you must file a written objection under the docket number for the Order to Show Cause.

You also have the right to object to the enclosed corrected Notice of Intention to Foreclose. To do so, you must file a written objection under the docket number for the foreclosure action in your individual case.

For either type of objection, you must set forth with specificity the basis of the objection, and file the objection with the Superior Court Clerk's Office at the following address within 30 days:

Superior Court Clerk's Office, Foreclosure Processing Services
Attention: Objection to Notice of Intention to Foreclose
P.O. Box 971
Trenton, New Jersey 08625

You must also serve a copy of the objection on Wells Fargo's attorney, Mark S. Melodia, Esquire, Reed Smith LLP, Princeton Forrestal Village, 136 Main Street, Princeton, New Jersey 08540 and mail a copy of the objection to Judge McVeigh, J.S.C., Superior Court of New Jersey, Chambers 100, 71 Hamilton Street, Paterson, New Jersey 07505.

Your personal appearance at the Superior Court Clerk's Office or your local courthouse will not qualify as an objection. A telephone call will not protect your rights; you must file your objection and serve it on the plaintiff's attorney if you want the court to hear your objection to the relief the plaintiff is seeking. If you file a specific written objection, the case will be sent to a Judge for resolution. You will be informed by the Judge of the time and place of the hearing on your objection.

You shall not be required to pay any separate charge, fee or penalty attributable to the exercise of your right to cure this default. This right to cure your default, de-accelerate and reinstate the Mortgage after a foreclosure action has been started may only be exercised by you once every 18 months. You have the right to bring a court action to assert the non-existence of a default or any other defense you may have to acceleration and sale.

If you cure the default after a foreclosure action has been started, Wells Fargo shall give written notice of the cure to the Court and, upon such notice, the Court shall dismiss the foreclosure action, without prejudice. Your Mortgage will be reinstated to the same position as if the default had not occurred and any acceleration of any obligation under the Mortgage and Note arising from the default will be nullified as of the cure date.

We urge you to immediately seek the advice of an attorney(s) of your own choosing concerning this residential mortgage default. If you are unable to obtain an attorney(s), you may communicate with the New Jersey Bar Association or the Lawyers Referral Service of the county where the property is located.
