Dear Sir:

Re: Objection to Court's Order Docket Number F-009564-12

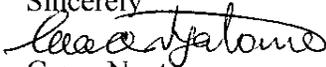

I have received a letter from your office because am the defendant in a pending foreclosure action. The letter further states that I did not comply with the requirements of the Fair Foreclosure.

Please be advised that I intend to keep my property, and I am doing all the necessary paperwork to keep my property not to go for foreclosure. I was laid off in April 1st 2010, collected unemployment until 8/1/2011. During this time, I applied for loan modification with American Servicing Company since my household income was reduced. To this day, I have not had any answer yet. Apparently, I have sent in all the necessary paper work and I call in to check weekly or every other day. This is all I have for my children.

Since 8/1/2011, I have been working partime with Christ Hospital and they are considering hiring me fulltime. My Daughter and my Nephew live with me and they contribute towards my mortgage.. I have tenants, 1st floor and 2nd floor. Given the current rates in the market, and amount of money that I collect, I will be able to make payments on time and live comfortably. Please, I need your assistance with any legal advice / needs until I get the answer from American Servicing Company. I am therefore filing for an Objection to Court's Order.

Thank you in advance for your help and consideration in this case.

Sincerely

Grace Nyatome
