

EE

December 18, 2023

Jeanine Jones
121 Nina Court
Williamstown, NJ 08094
1014markie@gmail.com
(856) 723-9584

Supreme Court of New Jersey
Office of the Clerk
P.O. Box 970
Trenton, NJ 08625-0970

0+3
RECEIVED
JAN 22 2024
SUPREME COURT OF NEW JERSEY

Re: IMO the Estate of Michael D. Jones, Deceased
Supreme Court Docket Number 088877

Dear Honorable Justices:

Please accept this letter to oppose plaintiff Shontell A. Jones' Petition for Certification in the above captioned matter.

I am relying upon the original briefs and appendices filed in the Appellate Division on September 13, 2023, as well as the Appellate Division's decision dated November 14, 2023, which represents the true and accurate facts related in this case.

However, for the record, I would like to clarify a few points which were grossly misrepresented by the plaintiff:

1.
I have never owned any federal or state savings bonds at any time during my marriage. This fact can be verified by the U.S. Department of Treasury - Treasury Direct. My deceased ex-husband, Michael D. Jones, began purchasing savings bonds through his federal employment in August 1990 and at that time, he designated me (Jeanine W. Jones) as beneficiary/POD.
2.
As the record will show, he had never designated neither the plaintiff Shontell A. Jones (daughter from previous relationship) or Tiffany A. Jones (our daughter by marriage) as beneficiaries throughout all of those years.
3.
To date, I have only received funds from social security as the ex-spouse of Michael D. Jones due to the fact that I was married to him for 27 1/2 years. I have not received anything at all, not proceeds from the sale of our home, belongings which were in our home, cars, bank accounts etc., and not the DSA contracted $100,000.00, from my deceased ex-husband's , Michael D. Jones, estate.

HIS

Therefore, I contend, the plaintiff's Petition for Certification raises no substantial questions and should be denied by the court.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Jeanine W. Jones".

Jeanine W. Jones, Pro Se

Cc:

Thomas A. Whelihan, Esq. (sent regular and certified mail # 9589 0710 5270 0922 7605 39)